WE THE SENIORS . . .

With the casting of silhouettes in springtime, graduation once again approaches, presenting to us, the seniors, a myriad of decisions to make.

As we leave the halls of James Wood and venture into the vast world with its uncertainties and its hunger for responsible, intelligent citizens, we look back nostalgically on our high school days.

These days can never be relived, but we may recapture the fond memories in the familiar places around us.

Throughout our yearbook, we will share with you the highlights of our reminiscence.

We, the seniors of the Woodbine staff, present to you the product of our hard work—the '66 WOODBINE.

DEDICATION

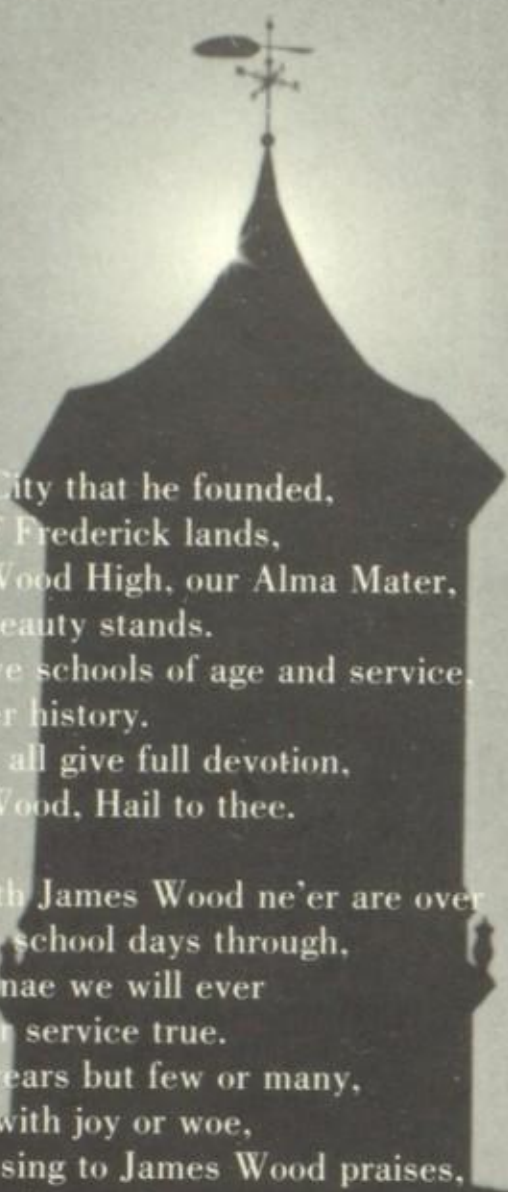

Mr. James C. Gordon, our personable principal, needs no introduction to James Wood students. An enthusiastic supporter of all school events, Mr. Gordon inspires school spirit as well as academic achievement. One aspect of this is illustrated by his co-sponsorship of the National Honor Society. Showing a genuine interest in the students, Mr. Gordon is always available to render counsel for problems confronting us.

Educated at Wake Forest and Virginia Polytechnic Institute, Mr. Gordon received a B. S. degree in Biology and a Masters degree in School Administration.

After teaching Agriculture and History at Stephens City High School, Mr. Gordon came to James Wood when it opened and taught Agriculture for nine years. Mr. Gordon has now served as principal for eight years. Hobbies for our principal include gardening, hunting, and fishing.

Mr. Gordon's twenty five years of unselfish service to the Frederick County school system has benefitted our county, our school, and the students. Thank you, Mr. Gordon, for your diligence and understanding!

ALMA MATER

By the City that he founded,
Heart of Frederick lands,
James Wood High, our Alma Mater,
In her beauty stands.
From five schools of age and service, came her history.
Now we all give full devotion,
James Wood, Hail to thee.

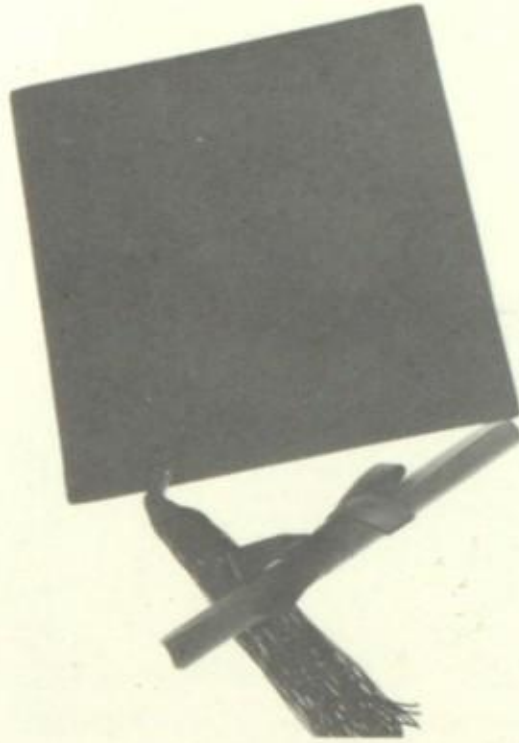

Days with James Wood ne'er are over
For with school days through,
As alumnae we will ever
Keep her service true.
Be our years but few or many,
fraught with joy or woe,
We will sing to James Wood praises,
Wheresoe'er we go.

Tho for future we are planning
lives of useful joy,
Memories of youth are longest
May they never cloy.
Onward ever! be the watchword
conquer and prevail,
Hail to thee, dear James Wood High School!
Hail to thee! All Hail!

FACULTY AND

CURRICULUM

Though each ship is bound for a different and perhaps far off port, the beacon seeks each of them out of the darkness and guides them on their way. Illuminating the threatening breakers and treacherous tides so deadly to their progress, the searching light lends spirit and encouragement to each ship as it approaches its destination.

Our teachers, compared to the beacon light, offer assistance and counsel to the students, or ships. Thanks to the understanding of our counselors and teachers, we are better prepared for the future.

Mr. James C. Gordon has served as principal of James Wood for eight years. Since his appointment, the school has grown in enrollment and in the quality of instruction. New languages, a new language laboratory, and new physical education facilities have been added during his time. The school has been enlarged in both construction and in the number of faculty members.

Mr. Gordon has worked diligently and successfully in making James Wood known and respected throughout the state, with students gaining prominence in academic and athletic competition.

EXECUTIVES PROVIDE LEADERSHIP

Mr. Melvin D. Fawcett is the assistant principal of our school. His responsibilities include checking student attendance and serving in a supervisory capacity in the total school program. He works with teachers concerning student behavior problems and also assigns lockers to the student body at the beginning of the school year. Through his efforts, the school operates on an efficient level.

MR. MELVIN D. FAWCETT
MRS. BARBARA CLARK

MISS LUCY PAINTER

Mrs. Barbara Clark answers all correspondence, prepares a daily absentee bulletin, keeps teachers informed of daily activities, answers the phone, delivers messages, and prepares reports.

Miss Lucy Painter cares for all school accounts and handles all school textbooks. She also takes care of school insurance and makes a monthly check of all teachers' registers.

We are proud of our office staff for the many contributions they have made in improving the operation of our total school program.

ADMINISTRATORS OFFER GUIDANCE

Mr. Robert E. Aylor, the division superintendent of the Frederick County Schools, is appointed by the school board for a term of four years and serves as the chief administrative and executive officer. In this capacity, he is responsible to the school board that he represents.

The Frederick County School Board is charged with the overall supervision of schools in the county. Assuming this responsibility, the board adopts policies that regulate the operation of all the schools, it devises adequate means for supporting these policies and sees to it that they are properly executed.

In achieving these objectives, the board assumes policy-making, appointive, administrative, and central powers over school finances and operational procedures.

SUPERVISING COUNTY EDUCATION

Supervisors concern themselves with the program of instruction. Three supervisors are employed by the Frederick County School Board to work with principals, teachers and parents in planning, implementing, and improving the existing program. The role of a supervisor demands intellectual depth and creative ability. They must be acquainted with all facets of subject material and be capable of offering constructive suggestions. Supervisors visit classrooms to help teachers and students secure the maximum amount of learning from the materials at their disposal. In addition to visitations, they are responsible for research and development, evaluation, inservice training and selection of materials.

Supervisors are advisors, not inspectors; they are innovators, not agitators; they are the master teachers of any school system.

Do you have a problem, want information, or need instruction? Every student at James Wood, at one time or another has visited the guidance office. The members of this department help the students develop their abilities, make wise decisions, and prepare for and live a satisfying and successful life.

Registration and orientation of students, counseling students, educational and some employment placement of students, following-up-graduates, and maintenance of individual cumulative records are some of the many accomplishments of the guidance office.

Spanish, French, and Latin are the foreign languages offered at James Wood. The teachers assist their students in the mastery of various foreign languages. The students are acquainted with the traditions, customs, surroundings, history, and people that characterize the country in which the language is spoken. The language department has advanced with the addition of the language laboratory. Films, tape recordings, language newspapers, and charts make the study of foreign languages fun and interesting.

RELIVING OUR PAST

The social studies department has eight faculty members with approximately 1200 students enrolled. Some objectives of the department are to provide a better understanding of world problems and problems of democracy and to promote a better understanding of world relationships and relationships between the past and the present. The accomplishment of the social studies department is the guidance toward better citizenship in our school, state, nation and world by taking part in the activities of the department.

Throughout Mathematics we emphasize mental computation. The department retains students in the skills of arithmetic and develops an appreciation of the use of mathematics. This year a new course, Advanced Algebra, has been introduced for Seniors only. By emphasizing self-reliance, verbal precision and a readiness to look for general principles, we hope to build mathematical maturity through this course.

EXPERIENCE THROUGH HOMEMAKING

Sandy Ritter and Shirley Bennett prepare a bulletin board to be used in showing the aspects of Home Economics.

Home Economics Education at James Wood High School is concerned with the application of knowledge to the job of homemaking and with the growth of individuals as contributing members of families.

Mrs. Sutphin explains the basic fundamentals of home economics to her students.

Vocational Agriculture
B.S., V.P.I.

The three teachers of the vocational agriculture department teach and train boys in the proficiency of agriculture by helping them develop skills in farming and its related occupations. The students learn leadership development and community service. Some accomplishments of the department are the participation in the public speaking in the Federal Contest, the sponsoring of the Frederick County Agricultural Fair, the organization of five "Keep Virginia Green" crews to suppress forest fires, the taking care of school grounds, the collection of baskets of food for needy families, and the improvement of agricultural yields in Frederick County.

THE SOUND OF MUSIC

MRS. COLLEEN B. COOK
Choral Music
B.A., Montana State University

The music education helps students experience greater pleasure in music. The beauty and sensuous appeal of music, its challenge to the emotional life, and its use as a means of self-expression offer a vital incentive to become an intelligent and broadly appreciative lover of music. An appreciative understanding of music provides the greatest single source for happy and wholesome living. This may be accomplished by a student's participation in instrumental, choral or general music classes.

Distributive Education continues as a growing program with the addition of a tenth grade preparatory course. Distributive Education I prepares the students for the work program which is offered in the eleventh and twelfth grades. In Distributive Education II, students work in the afternoon in different businesses in Winchester and Frederick County.

These students are taught grooming, selling, stockkeeping, advertising, merchandise information and visual merchandising. Distributive Education III is offered to students who have had one year of D.E. in their junior year.

Mr. Biddle and Mr. Radke work together on the D.E. program.

SKILLS DEVELOPED THROUGH TRAINING

The Industrial Cooperative Training course includes thirty eight students. Objectives of the department include: To provide trade and technical learning opportunities with pay, that will result in full time jobs of a skilled nature and to insure each student of James Wood taking this course, a high school diploma. An ICT club was designed to develop the entire personality of members, and to promote craftsmanship, citizenship, fellowship, leadership, and character.

SKILLS IN SECRETARIAL WORK

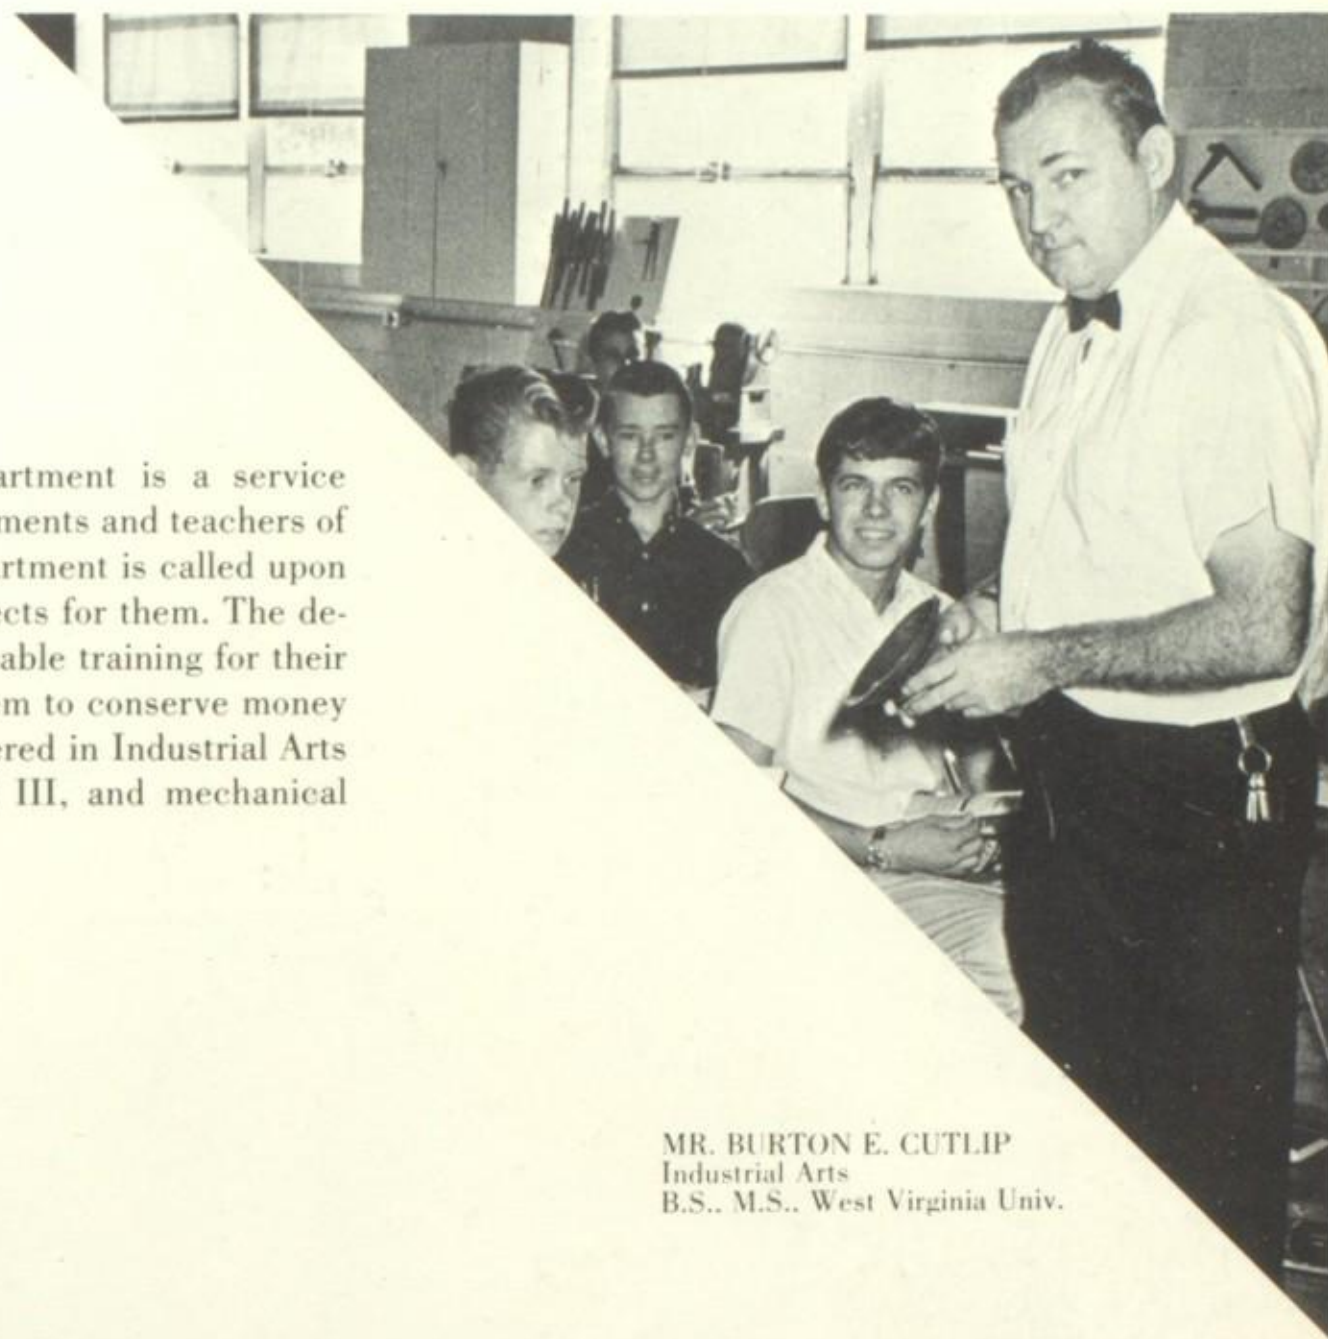

MR. DONALD L. PERRAULT
Office Training
B.A., Shepherd, V.P.I.

Senior students in the Business Education Department who have completed two years of typing, general business and enter shorthand or bookkeeping classes are offered Vocational Office Training. Those seniors, boys or girls, who qualify for enrollment in this program have an opportunity to learn to operate various kinds of office equipment, perform varied office activities, and through on-the-job training relate these skills to their classroom work. This year there are twenty-eight students enrolled in Vocational Office Training. These students are employed in many offices in the Winchester area.

BUILDING TRADES DEVELOPED

The Industrial Arts Department is a service department to the other departments and teachers of the school. Each year the department is called upon to make repairs and build projects for them. The department feels that this is valuable training for their students because it enables them to conserve money and materials. The courses offered in Industrial Arts are: Industrial Arts I, II, and III, and mechanical drawing.

Mrs. Fetter shows students how to improve their drawings.

The Art Department of James Wood consists of 117 students. The objectives of the Department include: To develop creative ability in the student, improve drawing abilities, and to introduce students to the many various media used in art.

Media used are: tempera, water color, oil paint, clay, drawing with pencil, charcoal, pen and ink, and various crafts. Drawing of still life, perspective, and design using paint are the accomplishments of the department.

HELPING HANDS GIVE ASSISTANCE

Even though her office is located at James Wood, Mrs. Barr serves a number of elementary schools in Frederick County. The school health program is primarily educational. The nurse teaches the students the meaning of good health and how to achieve it. Besides conducting the physical examination clinics, she is always available to teachers, the visiting teacher, students and parents for consultation regarding specific problems involving school health.

MRS. NANCY E. HARPER
Librarian
B.S., Potomac State, Madison, West Va. Univ.

The library not only supplies the students and teachers with available books, periodicals, films, and other audio-visual materials, but it also encourages reading, stimulates interest in books, teaches the students the use of the library, and provides a quiet atmosphere in which to work. The library has acquired 260 new books this year and has reorganized the periodical room, which is equipped with a conference table and can be used for special meetings, with the permission of the librarian.

"Where can you buy an excellent meal for twenty-five cents?" A person would say it's impossible in today's inflation. But in our school cafeteria the students have this offered to them 180 days a year. Through organization and efficiency the cafeteria staff is able to serve approximately 1400 students a day, operating on four lunch schedules. This year there are thirteen members on the cafeteria staff, headed by Mrs. Winnifred Pingley.

"We have a broken blind; when can you fix the window; can you clean our room today?" These requests by teachers and the continuous cleaning, repairing, and general maintenance are the responsibilities of our custodians. They have the responsibilities of cleaning and making repairs in seventy-five to one hundred rooms as well as keeping the gym, restrooms, halls, and locker rooms in spotless condition. Other duties include keeping the school grounds neat in appearance. We owe our custodians a vote of thanks for all they have done for the school.

The reward at the top of the stair—graduation. Entering James Wood as eighth graders, we found the stairway we must climb difficult and steep. As we progressed, the ascent became easier through broadened interests, knowledge, new friends, and clubs. Now, upon reaching the top, we find the steps have become worn and smooth. We, as Seniors, have greater assurance; not hesitating as frequently as before.

Our goal in high school has been attained. Lying ahead, the future looms uncertainly. It will be our duty to put to use all that we have learned.

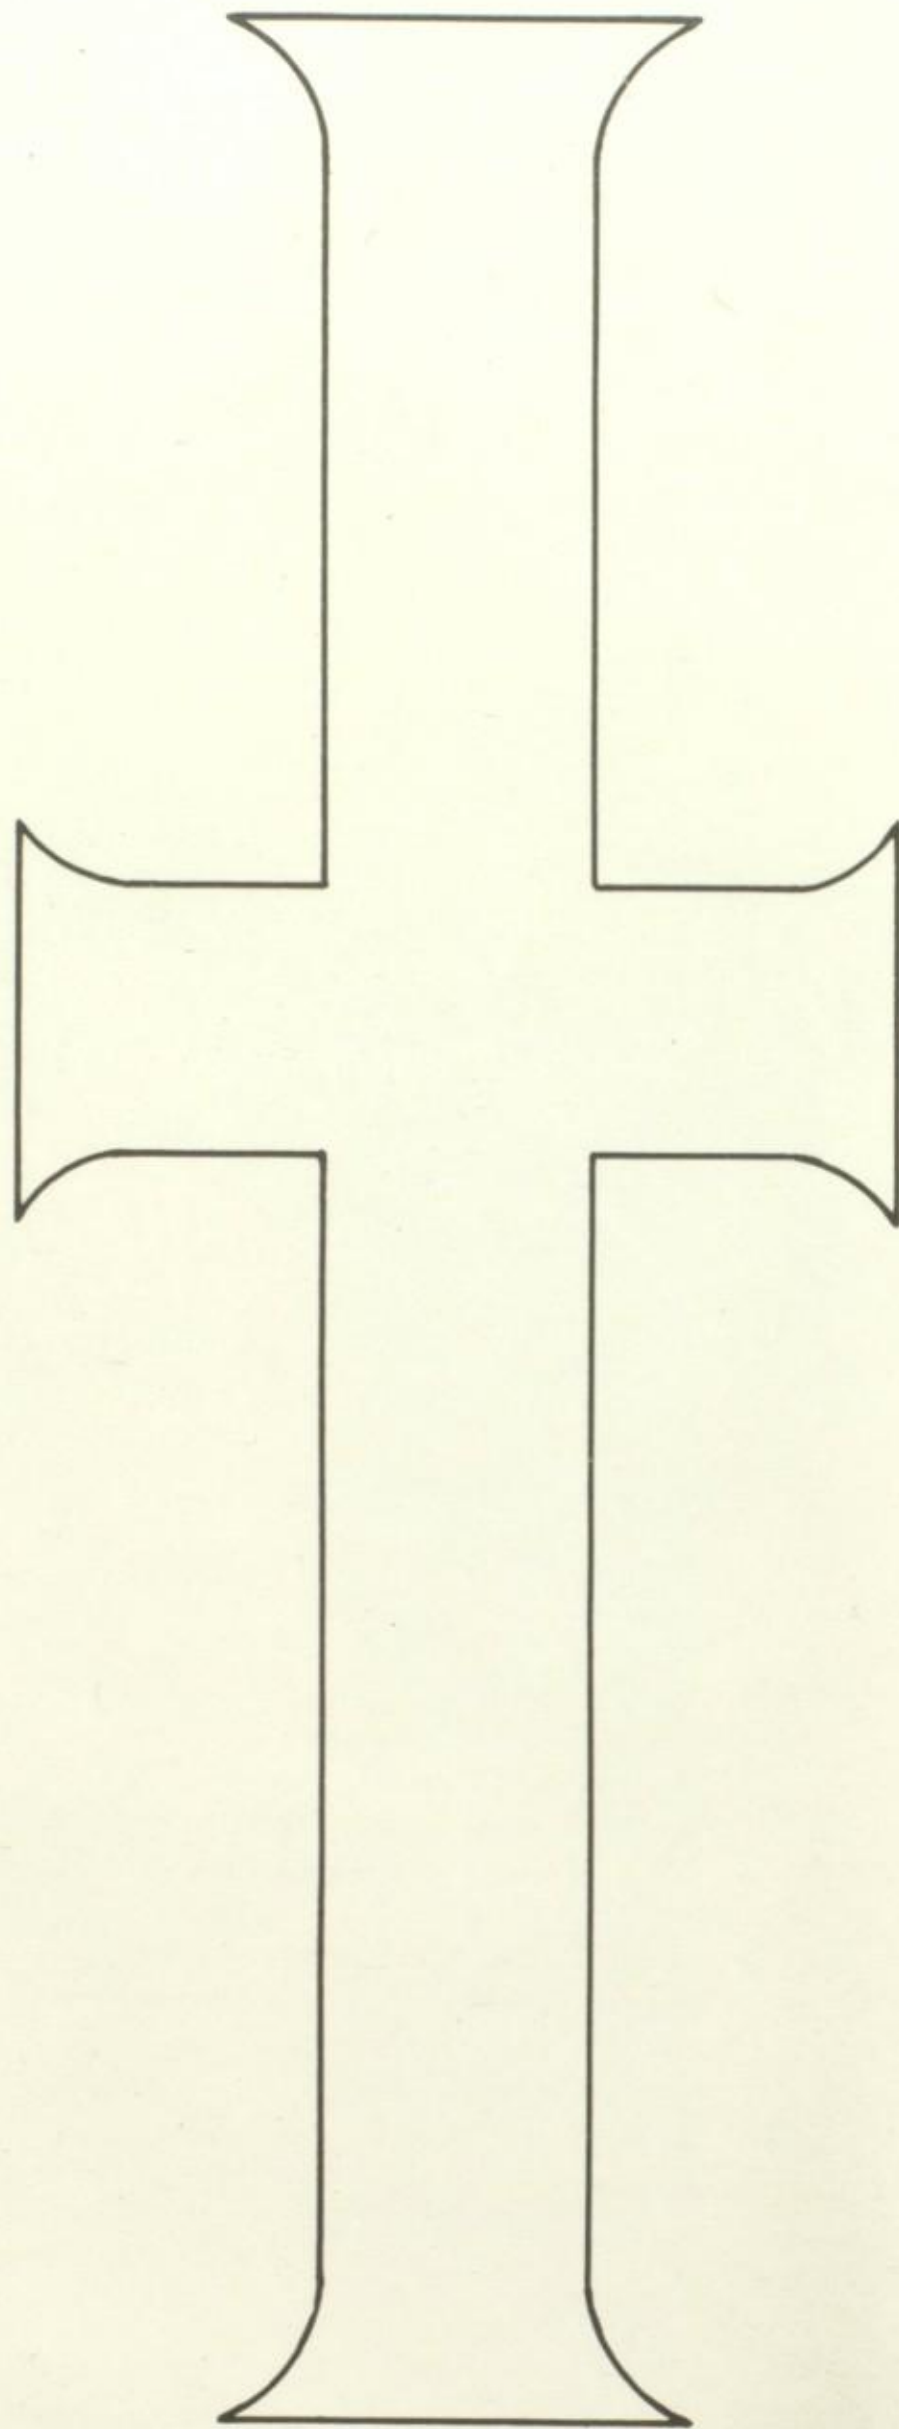

As we leave James Wood, we hope the underclassmen will cherish their high school days as we have.

IN MEMORIAM

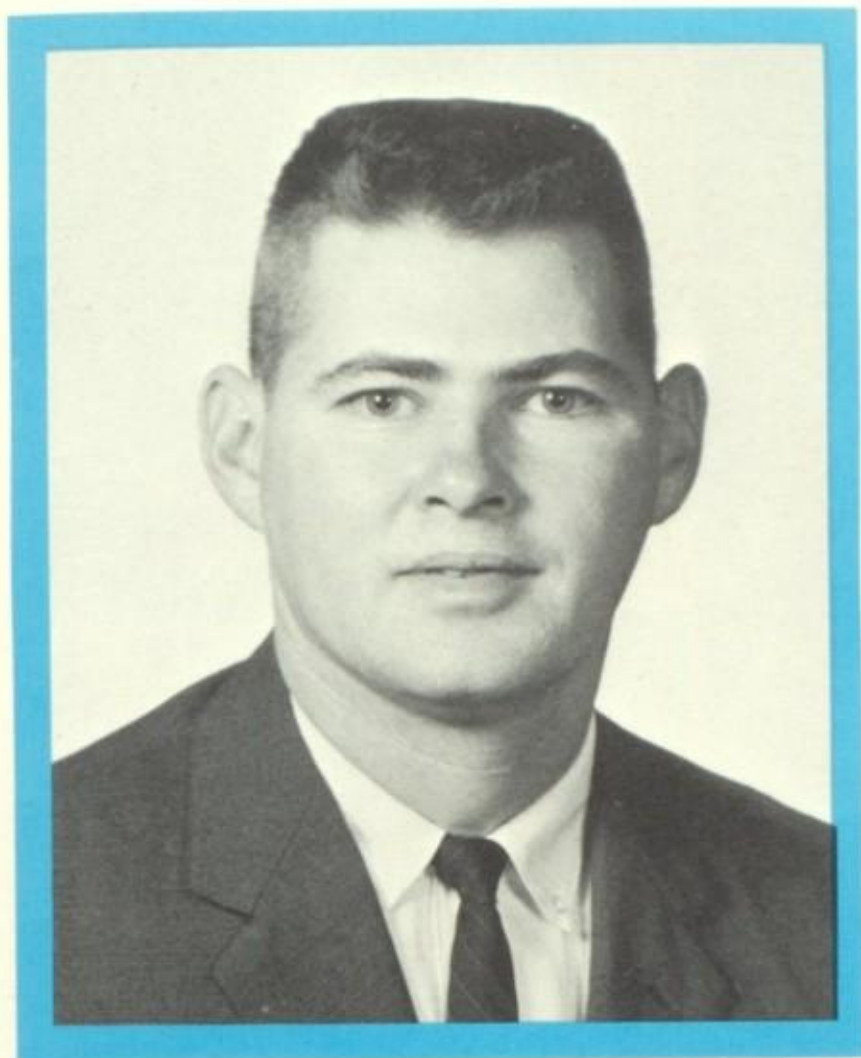

Larry Windle

We, the Class of 1966, seek to express our sincerest regrets at the loss of our friend and classmate, Larry Windle. We only wish that we could tell him what an honor it would have been to have graduated with him. Larry's personality was a great asset to our class, and his memory will be in our hearts no matter where we may go.

SENIOR SPONSORS

Mr. Walter Barr—to you, we cannot begin to say how much we appreciate your help. Although you have not been our sponsor for all of our years at James Wood, you have done much to assist us in our projects and activities. Your reassuring smile has been an inspiration for us to work harder. At last we have reached our goal, and we would also like to say to you—thank you, Mr. Barr.

1966

Mrs. Martha Schmeller—to you we, the Class of '66, will never be able to fully express our gratitude. For these past four years, you have indeed made a great impression upon us. There are so few ways for us to say how much we appreciate what you have done for us. We can only say—thank you, Mrs. Schmeller.

BRAINS -VS- BRAWN

Maria Whitacre, Glenn Kern, Sharron Armel, Allen Haines, and Karen Rudolph capably represented our school on the television program, "It's Academic".

These Senior boys brought glory to James Wood High School by representing us athletically. They will be greatly missed next year.

One of the highlights of the Senior year was the election of those members of the class for representation in the various fields of personality.

A Senior Class meeting was held and each student voted for the persons of their choice. The votes were collected and the Woodbine Staff counted them. For the students chosen it was a pleasure and honor to be selected.

UNDER

CLASSMEN

Striving towards their senior year, the underclassmen gain knowledge and maturity through the various activities and studies included in the curriculum of high school life. Each of us wish the undergraduates the best of luck and hope they will be as happy in these surroundings as we have been.

CLUBS AND

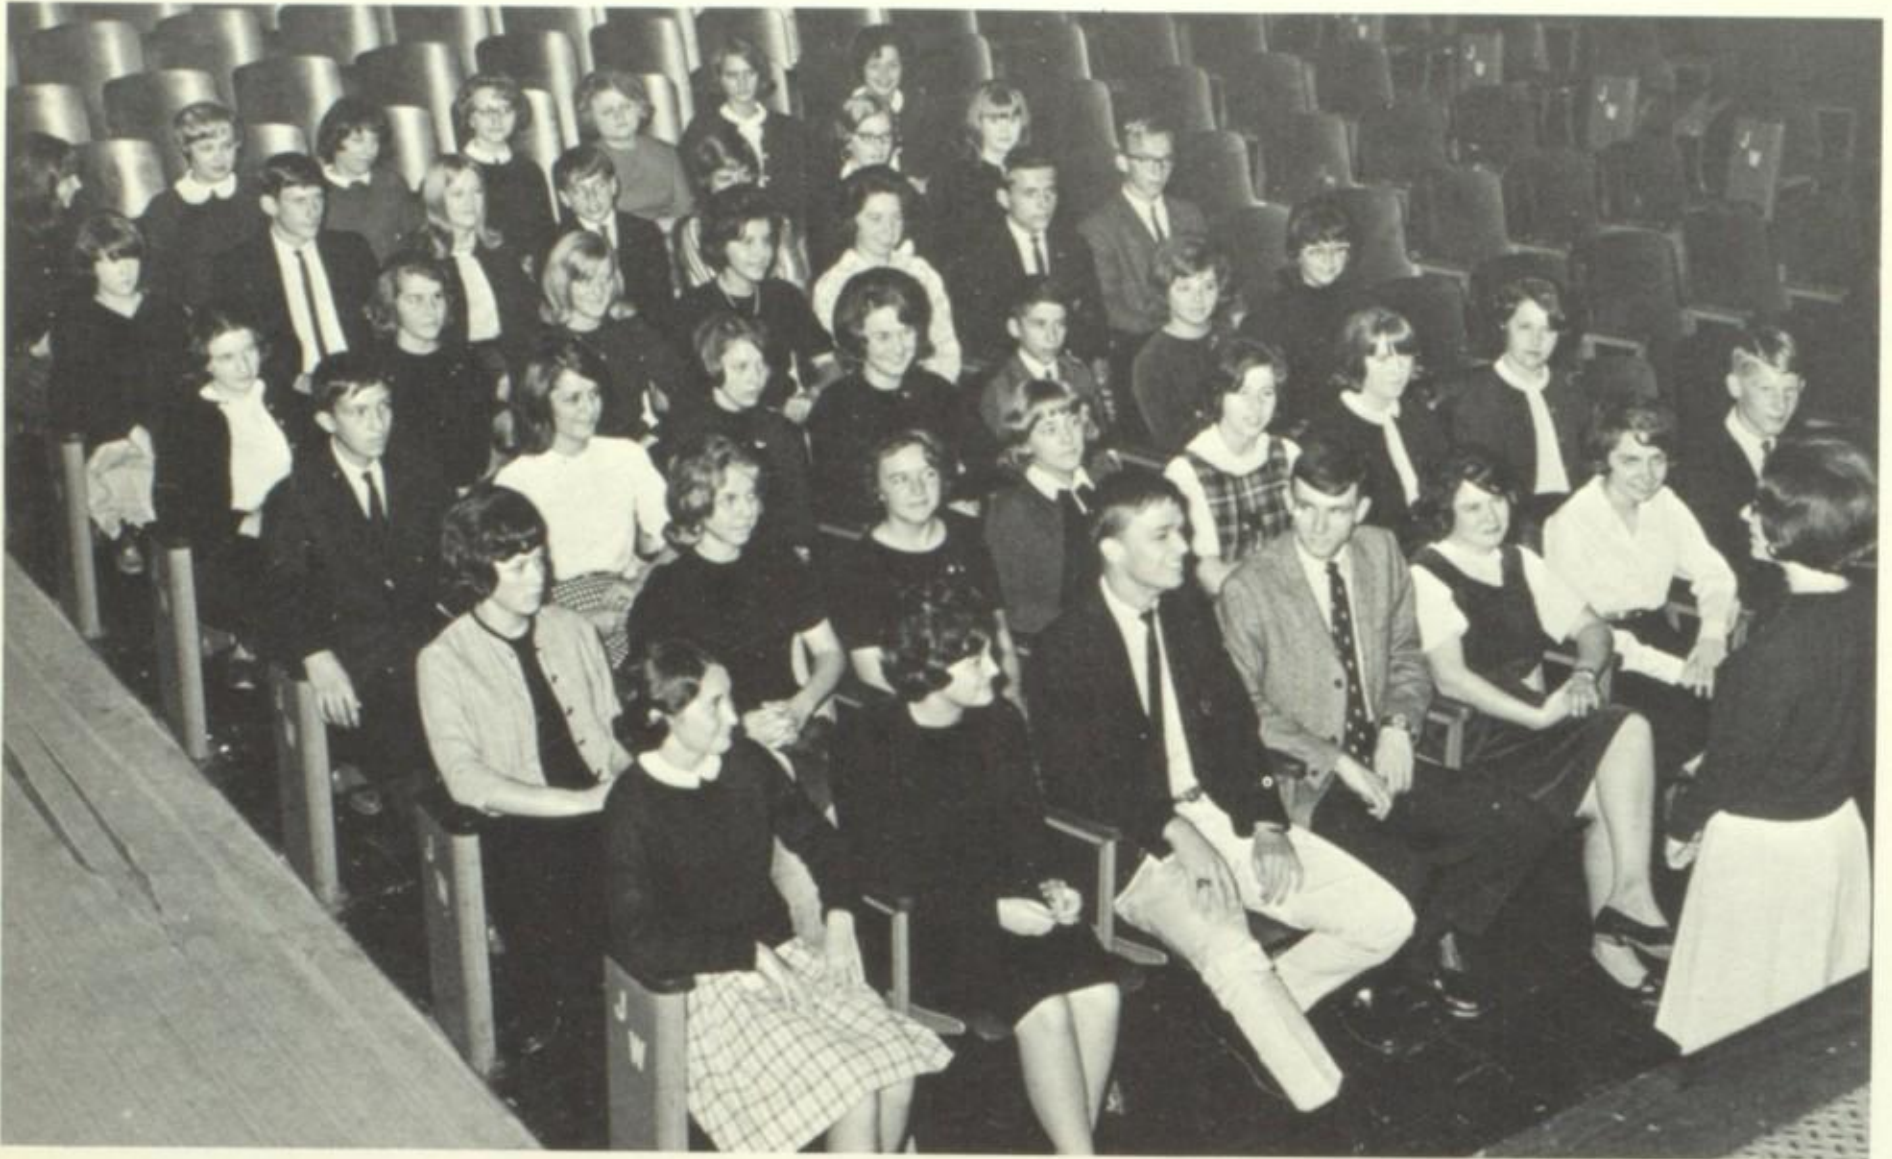

ACTIVITIES

Adding variety and liveliness to our Alma Mater are the clubs and activities of James Wood. As these activities and events provide the needed break from the routine schedules we follow, they help enrich our lives by instilling in us the qualities of leadership and responsibility.

STUDENT CO-OPERATIVE

Standing: Sharron Armel, President. Row 1: J. Kern, C. Welt, J. Smith, L. Rodgers, B. Phillips, P. Shirley, S. Lee. Row 2: J. Simkhovitch, J. Wolfe, C. Merriner, S. Shoemaker, S. Lloyd, P. SCA secretary, Karen Gardner is reading the minutes from a previous meeting.

The Student Co-operative Association is the one organization to which every James Wood student belongs. Therefore, it concerns itself with the welfare of all students.

At the beginning of each school year the SCA operates a used book store and have two "get acquainted" parties. During the year, the SCA sponsors several assemblies, posts the honor roll, sends delegates to district and state conventions, and trains a team for the television quiz program "It's Academic". The biggest service project this year was to help build and paint the new radio booths at the football field. All these projects are financed by operating the Snack Bar on the athletic field.

One of the SCA projects this year was keeping monitors in every hall. Peggy Rowland is the monitor on C Hall.

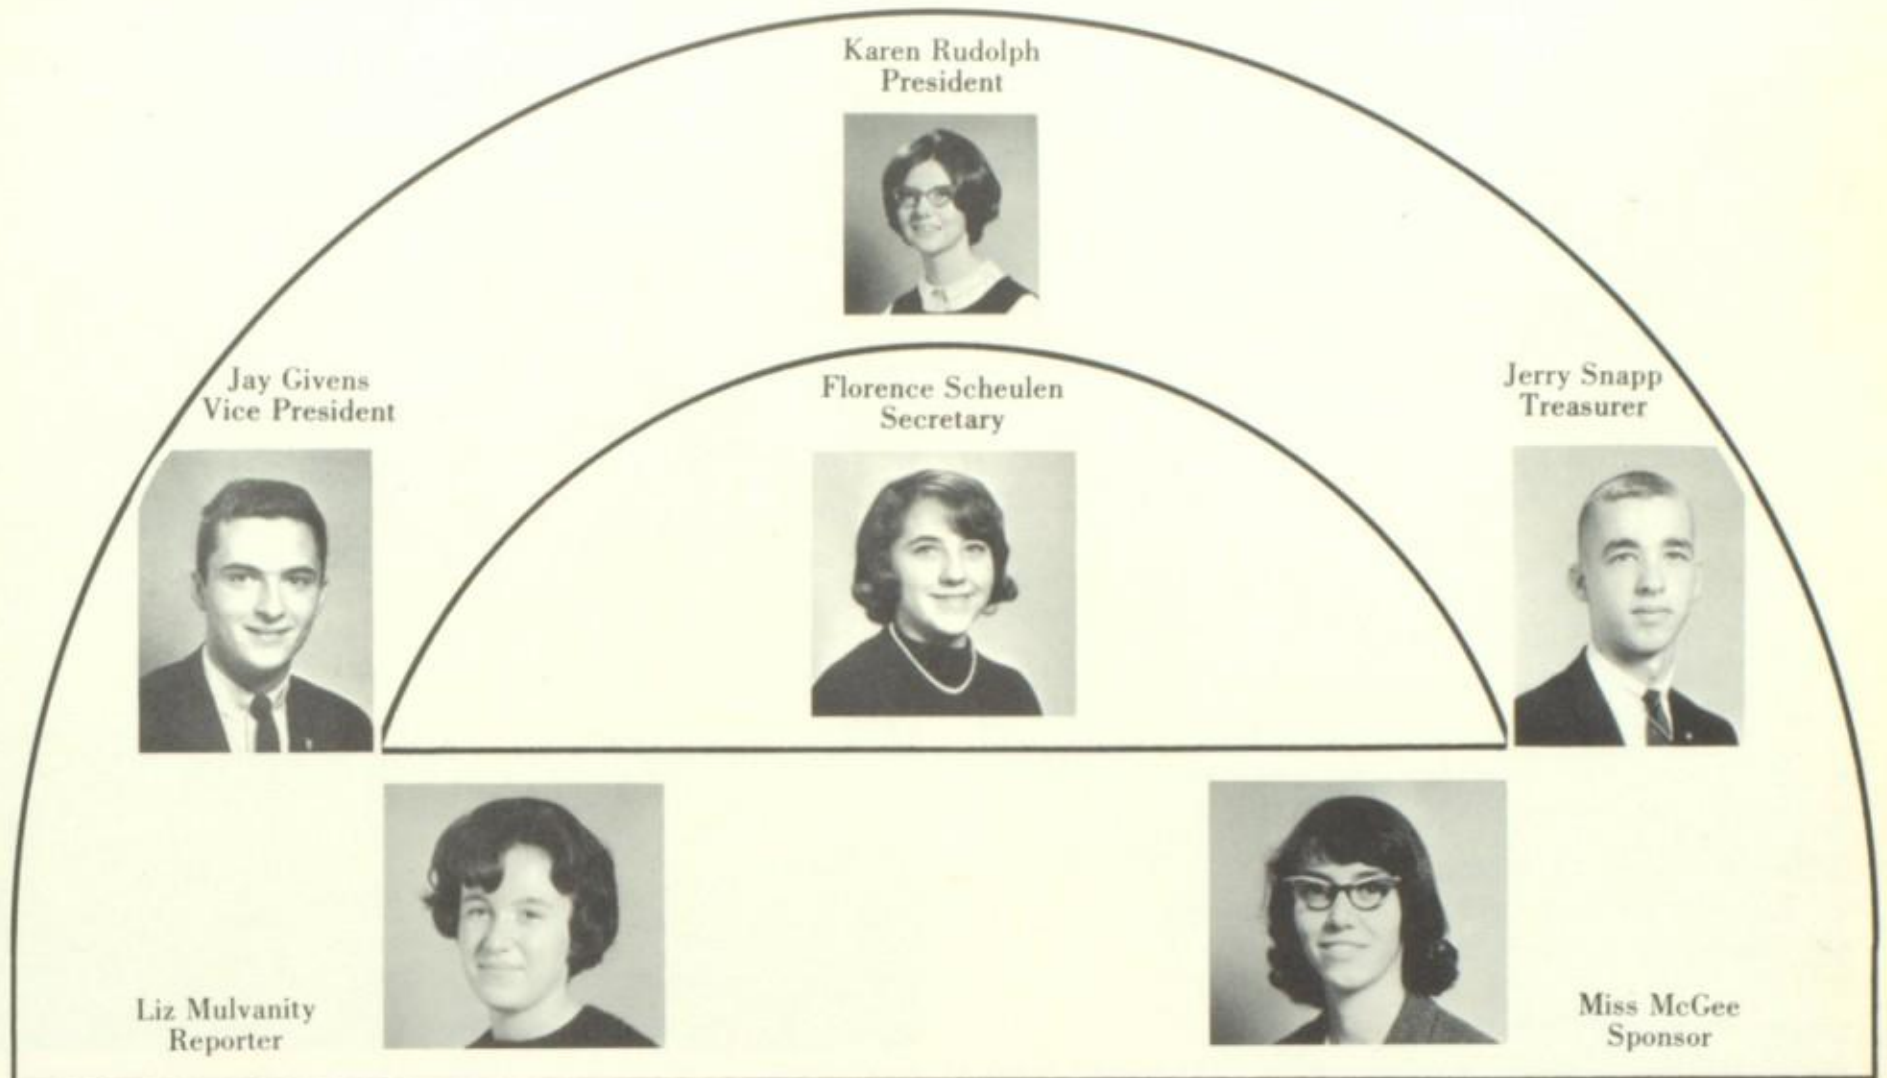

Sandy Holbrook, homeroom representative, is reporting the latest news from the last SCA meeting.

A tea was held for our teachers during Teacher Appreciation Week.

MU ALPHA THETA

Mu Alpha Theta is an organization whose purpose is the promotion of scholarship as well as the enjoyment and understanding of mathematics among high school students. Through monthly meetings the club provides interesting and useful information to its members through student planned programs, demonstrations, and discussions.

The club hopes to promote interest in the development of mathematical concepts and thereby to increase the role of mathematics in modern life.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Becoming a member of the N. H. S. is a great honor bestowed upon only those students at James Wood who possess the qualities of scholarship, leadership, service and citizenship. Every year the club sponsors the annual Beauty Contest from which one girl is chosen to reign as Miss James Wood. Other important projects include a banquet, purchasing books for the library, participation in National Scholarship Program, and performing various other services for the community as well as the school.

K. Hash, S. Penwell, S. Hall, P. Lewis, M. Whitacre, S. Seaman, D. Seaman, S. Brumback, D. Affleck, B. Luttrell, K. Gardner, L. Brumback, J. Brown, A. Bly, V. Perry, L. Mulvanity, D. Whitacre, C. Sutphin, R. Croesen, G. Scheulen, J. Anderson.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The Future Nurses' Club stimulates interest and explores the opportunities and requirements of the medical field. Each year the club has a teachers' tea, pinning ceremony, membership drive, and a picnic at the end of the year. The members take informative trips to various colleges and hospitals. Membership is open to all juniors and seniors.

CLUB

During Spanish Club meetings there are reports, skits, and films on Spanish speaking countries. One of the projects was a "Spanish Table" at lunch in which the students learned table manners of the Spanish and to speak in Spanish. For a fund raising project, a bake sale was held. Also the Spanish Club had several plays during the year.

They sponsor a basketball team each year. And at the end of the year the club holds a banquet.

Ricky Presgraves is a perfect example of Spanish life.

EDUCATION

The DE Club has had an outstanding year. One of the first activities was the DE Initiation Ceremony and Installation of Officers. Employers, parents, and other guests were invited to attend. As one of the money making projects, the members sold candy during the Christmas season.

The contest program consists of the sales demonstrations, public speaking, advertising, merchandise, and area manuals. The contests are based on local, district, state, and national levels.

Sponsors: Mr. James Biddle and Mr. Ed Radke

President Steve Milburn is addressing the student body. In his speech, Steve explained the goals and purposes of the Distributive Education Program.

One of the community projects was selling coffee and doughnuts for the March of Dimes.

INDUST

The ICT program is a part-time, industrial and technical training program for high school juniors and seniors. The club unlike many of James Wood's clubs, is co-curricular; that is it is a part of the academic course and an integral part of the personal, social, and educational development of each student.

VOCATIONAL

Vocational Office Training provides for the senior business education students the opportunity to learn on-the-job. Work experience and classroom instruction are combined to offer the student skills and techniques essential to successful office work. Filing, payroll procedures, receptionist duties, data processing, and machine operations are just some of the skills learned in the classroom and later applied in the office.

The highlight of this program each year is the annual Employer-Employee Banquet which is given to express appreciation to the employers for making this program possible.

This year the program was honored by the selection of one of its members, Ann Puffinberger, to head the Frederick County Mothers March on Polio.

Sueanne Seaman is busy adding on the electric calculator.

Ila Allenson thinks the Mimeograph machine is a very important part of her office work.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Miss Eller, Sponsor

For journalistic standards, the Quill and Scroll was established at James Wood. Quill and Scroll is the international honor society for high school journalists.

Sponsoring a bake sale to raise money for the U. S. O. was the first club project. The society has also begun this year what it hopes will become an annual tradition, that of giving awards for meritorious journalistic activity.

LIBRARY CLUB

Primarily a service organization, the Library Club aids students and the faculty members in finding materials, books, magazines or films. All the members have a genuine interest in books and strive to encourage this interest in others.

The members of the Library Club learn by doing such things as checking out books, preparing bulletin boards and straightening the book shelves. When it is necessary, they also type book cards and file them.

FUTURE OF

FHA members become good citizens of the future by practicing good citizenship today through such activities as preparing and serving refreshments at the Practical Nurses Capping Ceremony and Graduation Exercises, fixing baskets for needy families at Christmas, rolling bandages for the Rescue Squad, and preparing Easter baskets for children in the hospital. Future Homemakers serve the community.

Each year a Mother-Daughter and Father-Son Banquet is held along with the FFA. A picnic is held in the spring with the FFA.

OF AMERICA

Danny Carpenter, Sentinel; Linden Fravel, Vice President; Jerry Windle, Treasurer; Charles Boyd, President; Charles Supthin, Secretary; Mr. Davis; Sponsor.

The Future Farmers of America at James Wood sets up activities with the idea of benefiting the school and the community and of developing leadership among its members. All meetings are well planned and are conducted in a business-like manner according to the best practices of parliamentary procedure. Each member is assigned to a committee that carries out some activity.

They care for the school grounds, hold a joint parent-banquet with the FHA, conduct an agricultural fair, and set up KVG Crews in each magisterial district to suppress fires. Last Christmas the members collected 100 baskets of food for the Salvation Army and donated them to the Christian Overseas Relief.

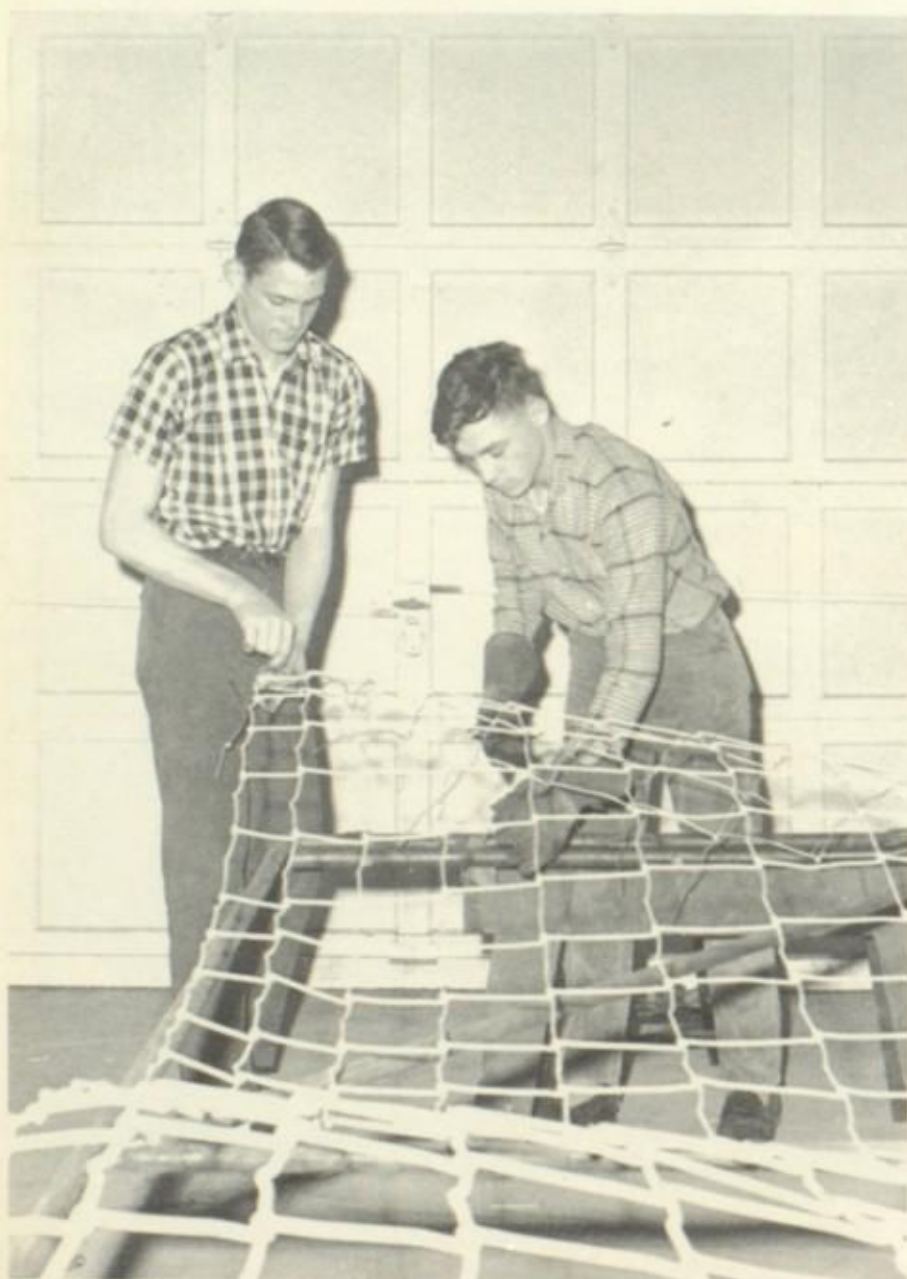

KVG Crews are trained by the FFA Department.

FFA IN ACTION

The FFA prepares the boys in many skills such as welding.

Gary McDonald and Vernon Wright display a skill learned in shop.

Safety is the first necessity in the shops in the Vo. Ag. Department. Phillip Dellinger wears a mask for protection while welding.

FHA MOVES AHEAD

Jan Kline is busy making her shift in Home Ec. Sewing is only one of many skills learned in class.

Peggy Rickard helps in the clinic by ironing the sheets for the cots.

Like all good housewives, Barbara Gibbs and Shirley Borror know that washing dishes is essential in keeping house.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB

Each Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, James Wood Girls invade the Health Center Bowling Lanes for an evening of relaxation and fun. Bowling is a physical skill and also promotes good sportsmanship. Each team, usually sponsored by a local company or merchant, has five regular team members and one substitute. The teams compete for trophies, which are awarded at the banquet at the close of the school year.

MONOGRAM CLUB

To promote good sportsmanship, to provide an opportunity for those girls interested in the field of teaching, to assist in the field of teaching, to assist the physical education teachers, and to allow girls participating in sports to gain a better understanding of teamwork are the main goals of the Girl's Monogram Club.

Any girl in grades 9-12 is eligible to participate in intramurals which include volleyball, basketball, and softball. This year archery intramurals was added for the 10th graders who took an archery course in physical education class. After a girl has accumulated a total of 500 points, she receives a letter and becomes an active member of the club. With each additional 200 points, a bar is awarded.

Mr. James Biddle, sponsor, and Greg Ritter discuss layouts for the 1966 Woodbine.

Nelson Clevenger is a member of the business committee, but right now he can't decide what these girls are so interested in.

Linotype sheets must be typed for every page. Typing these sheets takes a lot of Greg's, Susie's and Karen's time.

Working on the clubs and special events section, are Mary Travers, Dianne Teets, Janet Farrior, and Karen Hulver.

WOODBINE STAFF

The 1966 Woodbine was the fruit of the labors of the largest staff in the history of James Wood. A great book was made greater with more and better action shots (thanks to ace photographer Larry Sullivan), more interesting write-ups, the use of spot color, and a new cover. The staff, composed of juniors and seniors only, left no stone unturned in their quest for new and different ideas. Snow and more snow caused a panic as work on the book was delayed; however, by some stroke of luck (and hard work) the finished product was in on time and sighs of relief could be heard in room 24C.

Co-Editors, Greg Ritter and Maria Headley are busy discussing deadlines.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is a school service club sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club. Its many projects aid the school and community. Among its projects are an annual light bulb sale, holding dances, helping the Salvation Army, putting up the flag at home football games, and attending District Conventions. The motto of the club is "We Build".

Charlie Goode, Wayne Patteson, and Greg Ritter are working on plans for the next Key Club Dance.

KEY CLUB SWEETHEART

Susan Snapp

Susan Snapp was honored by being chosen Key Club Sweetheart this year. She was chosen by a majority vote of the club members and presented a white Key Club blazer. Susan represented the Club in the annual National Honor Society Beauty Contest and participated in all the Key Club activities throughout the year.

KEY CLUB IN ACTION

"When you know of a club that is doing, you know of the Key Club."

Lester Ginn speaks at our first assembly.

EVENTS

A black and white photograph of a person's silhouette looking out a window. The person is in the foreground, facing right. The window is large and multi-paned, letting in bright light. In the background, there is a chandelier hanging from the ceiling and a tall, dark pole with a decorative finial on top. The overall mood is contemplative and dramatic.

The excited air of homecoming, the happiness of ring day, the tense moments of the "It's Academic" team, the educational exhibits of the fair, and the rewarding experience of college day all contribute to the fulfillment of our high school life. Without these special events, our school would lack the joy and enthusiasm with which it abounds.

Campaigning for SCA is both fun and hard work. Charlie Woys and Jenny Shull campaigned for Susie Brumback, who is running for president.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES HIGHLIGHTED

Cheerleaders parade around the football field during half time.

The homecoming activities were greater than ever this year. Highlighted by a stunning football victory and a charming queen, this will be a homecoming remembered for many years by all.

Sharleen Penwell reigned as queen and was attended by Peggy Stover, Susie Snapp, Karen Ralston, and Phyllis Moulden.

Queen and court and their escorts, Mr. Shirley, Mr. Biddle, Mr. Funkhouser, Mr. Weir, and Mr. Bennett.

QUEEN SHARLEEN PENWELL

Sharleen Penwell was elected by the members of the football team. Sharleen was crowned during half time ceremonies. She was presented a football signed by the team and a bouquet of yellow roses by the Pep Club.

ALMA MATER RECALLS

The most important day of a student's life is the day when they get that "little blue rock".

Who will ever forget crammed lockers and the panic when the books fall out just when the class bell rings, or Senior dress-up day? Even with all the studying, there was time to have fun. No matter where we go or what we do, we will always remember being together as a student body.

Susie Snapp and Karen Ralston have the usual Senior problems — crammed lockers.

"Senior Dress-up Day is enjoyed by all seniors!" says Jim Smith, Bev Harmon, Sue Brill, and Tommy Pennington.

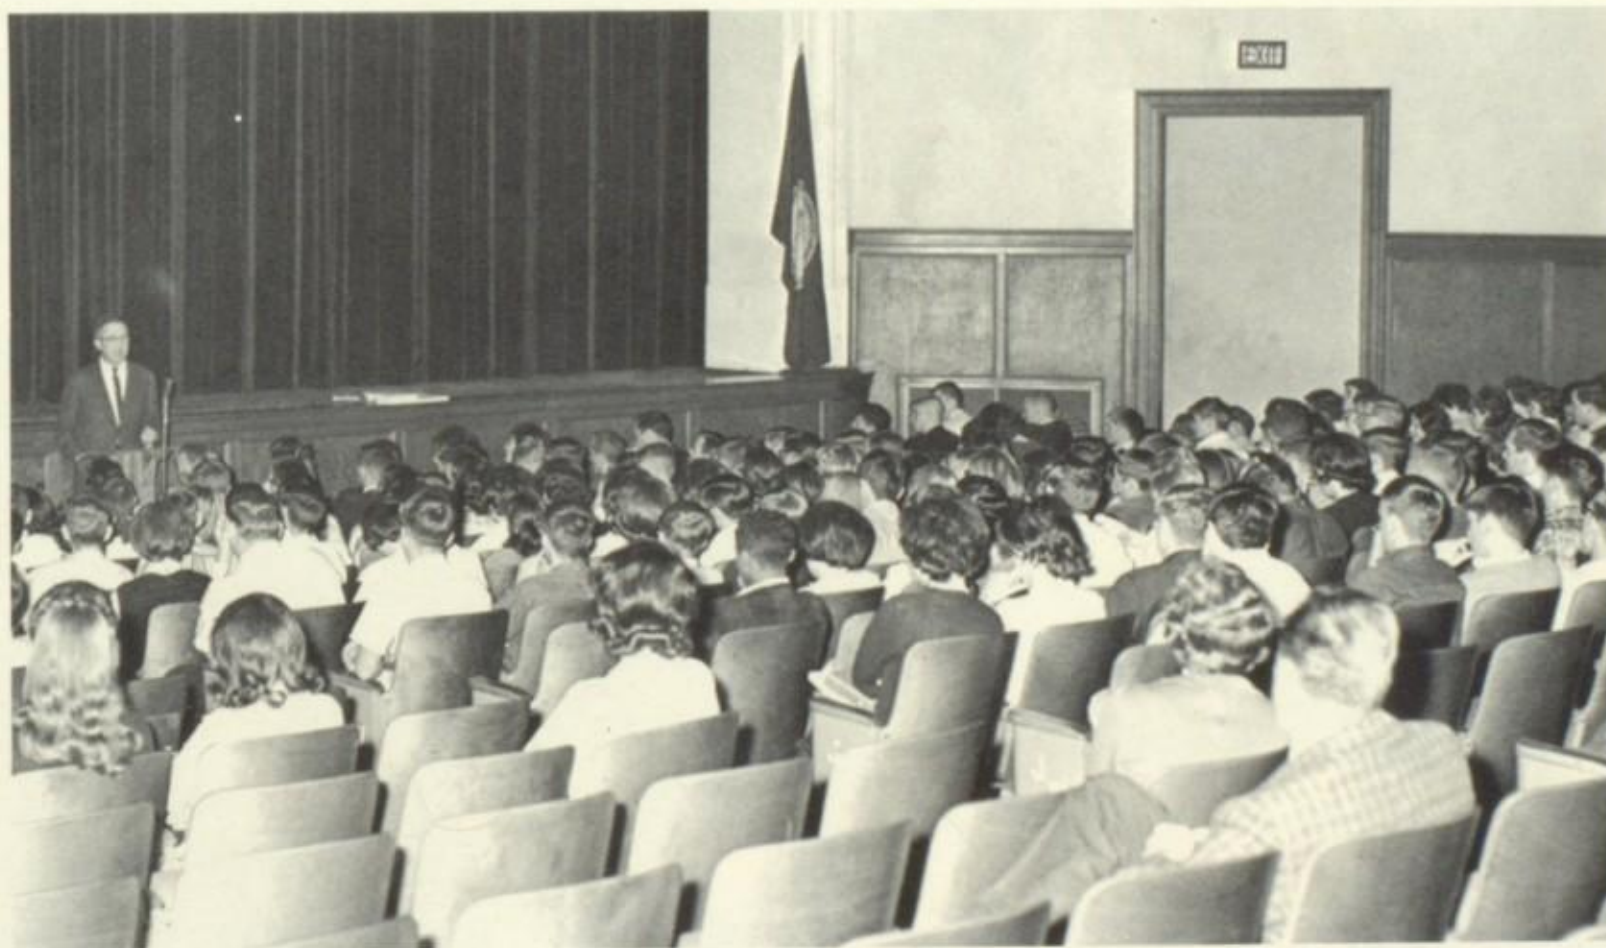

SHEPHERD . . . MADISON . . .UPI . . .

Junior and Senior boys are planning their future education.

College Day is a big event in the lives of all high school people. It is a time when you carefully mold your future.

Careful consideration must be made about every college before you decide which college will best suit your interests.

Seniors listen attentively to a speaker from the Disability Center.

STUDENTS LEARN . . .

"It's Academic" team members, Glenn Kern, Allen Haines, and Sharron Armel, won second place for J. W.

The skills learned will help you achieve your goal in life, as Susan Koon knows well.

Basketball games are a very important part of the school; they are the backbone of good sportsmanship for your entire life.

Robert Vincent and Steve Crites receive an award for their essay on Americanism.

Ronnie Skiles and Vicky Stine discuss an art project.

Pat Adams, Steve Milburn, and Russ Mason learn that teachers are here to help us.

. . . AND ENJOY

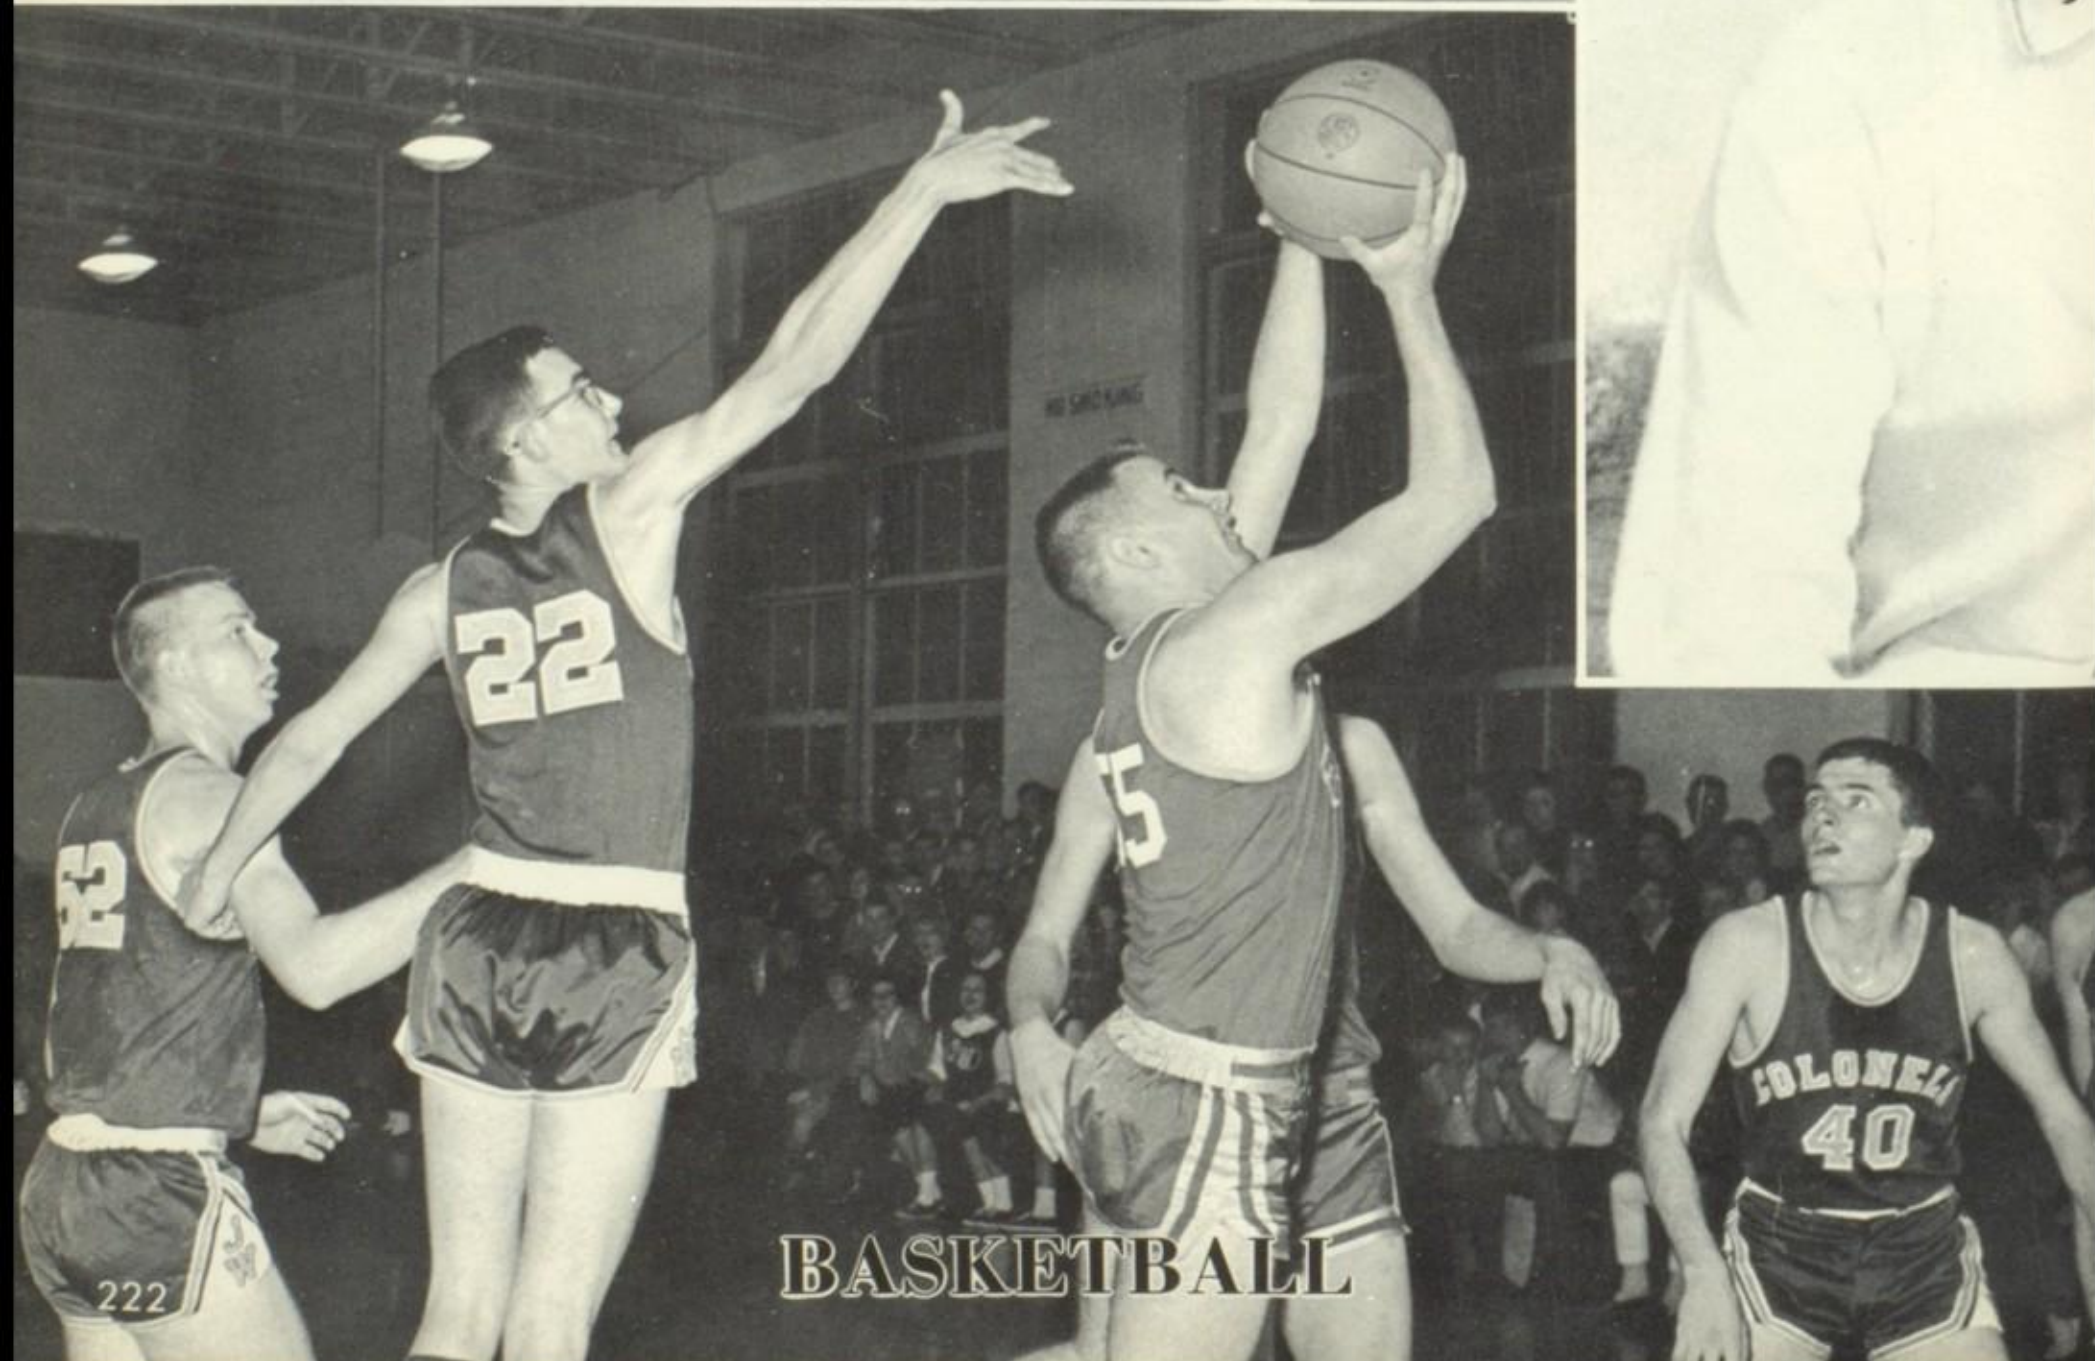

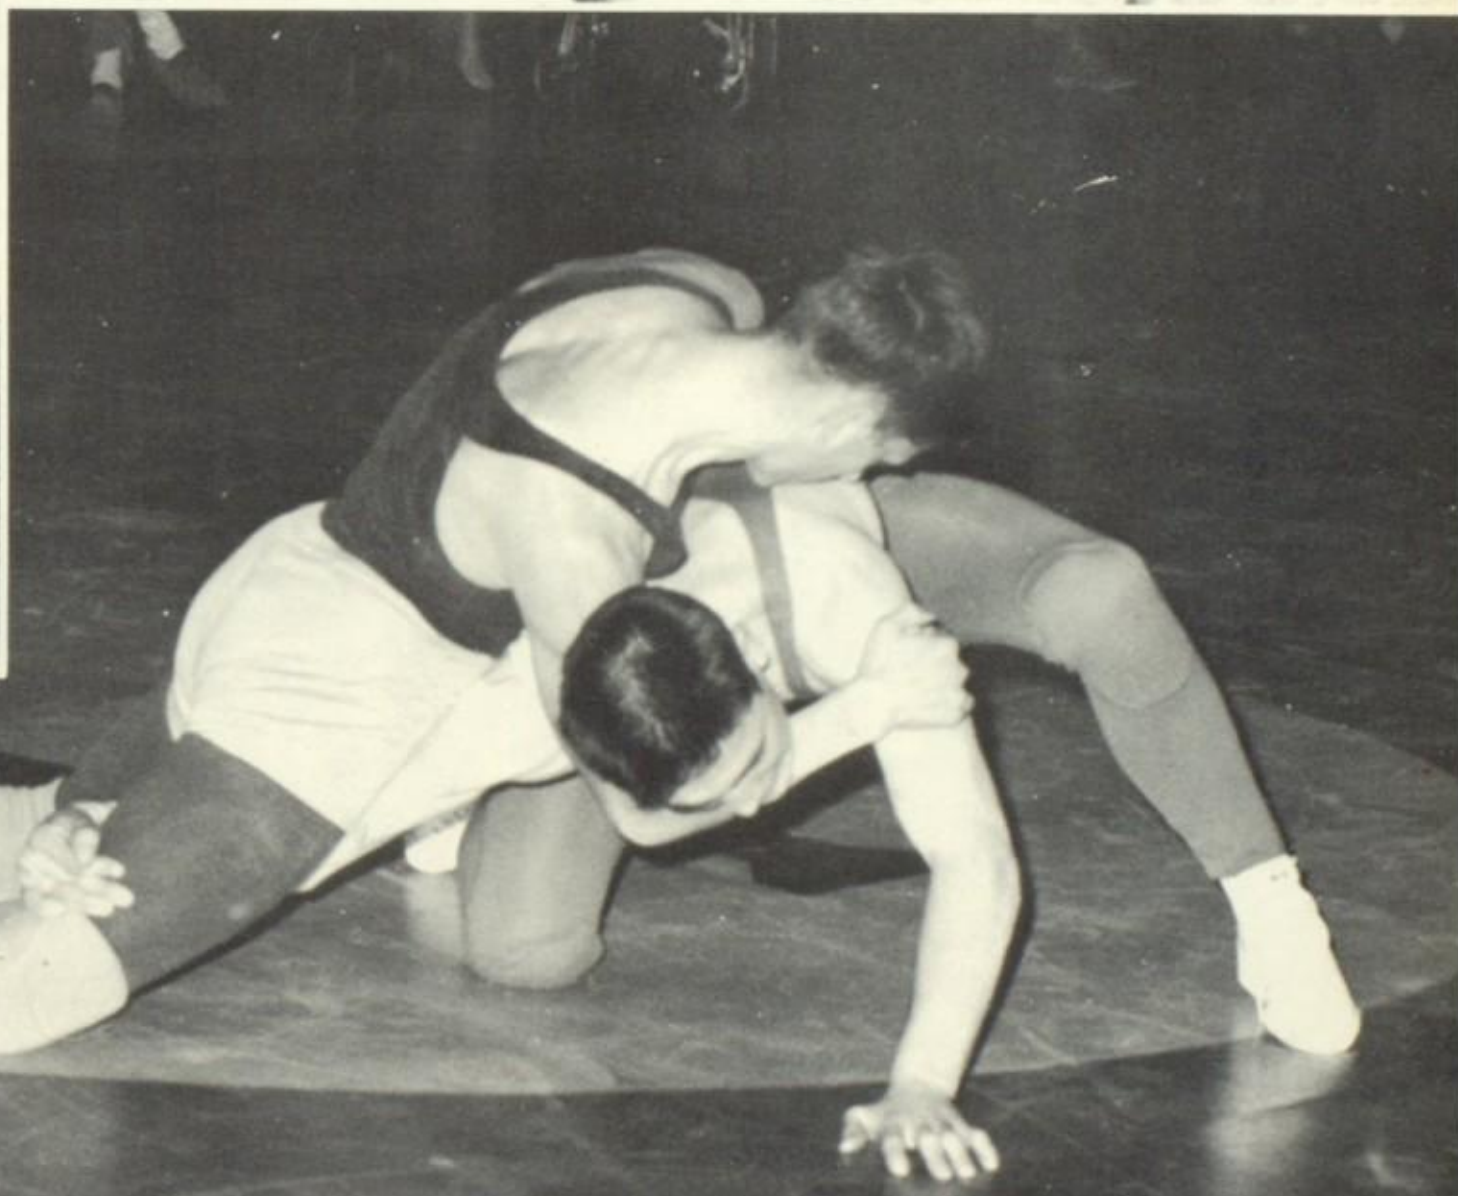

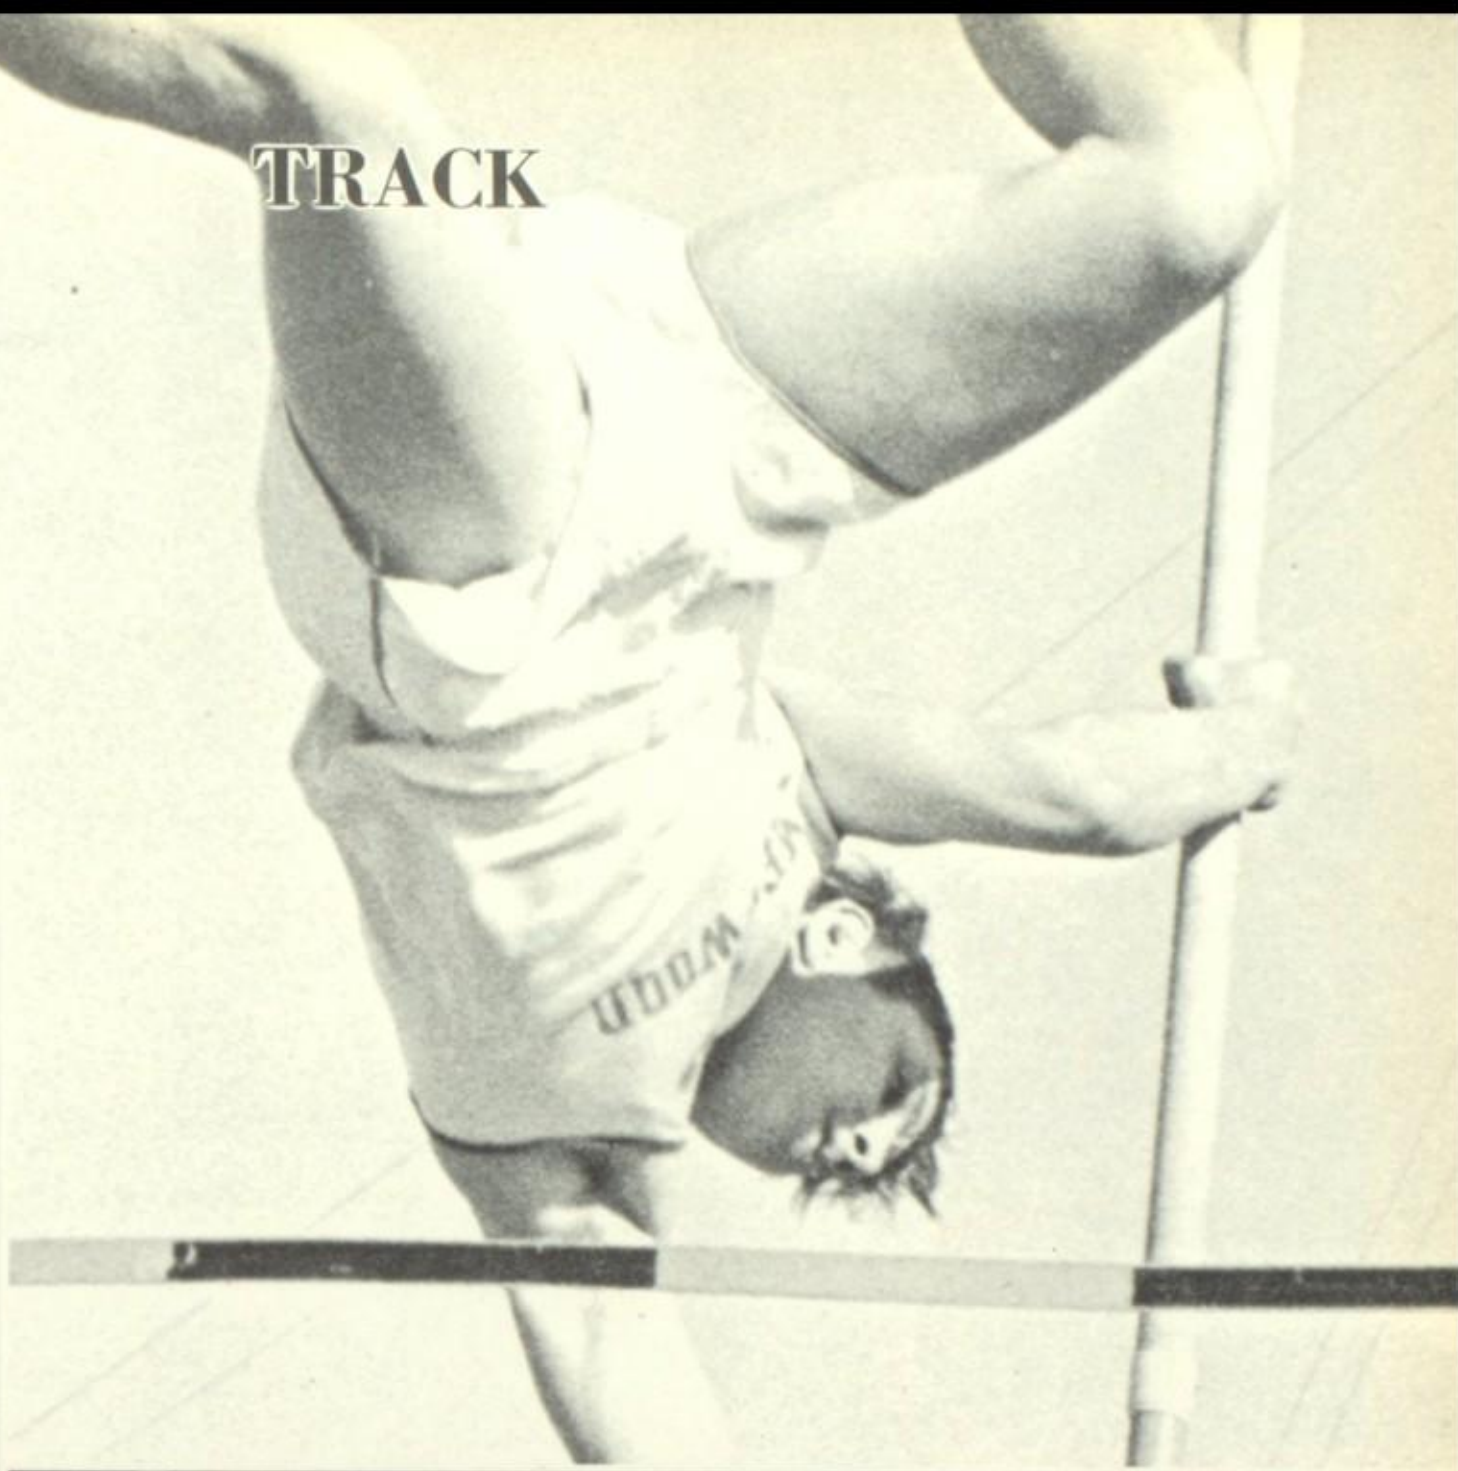

A hush falls over the crowd; the tension mounts; a cheer soars through the night – VICTORY!

Growing tremendously in quality, sportsmanship, and skill, our athletic teams are something of which we may be quite proud. The excellent record of this year as well as previous years, is a fine example. We, the seniors, salute the coaches and boys.

Football again reached an all time high in success this year as the Colonels posted an 9-1 record, losing only to Clarke County, who went undefeated. The Colonels won their games through team effect and desire. Beginning with an inexperienced line and a brilliant backfield, the team improved each game. The backfield of Robinson, Bayliss, Marks, Bucher, and Clevanger gained tremendous yardage through the air and on the ground.

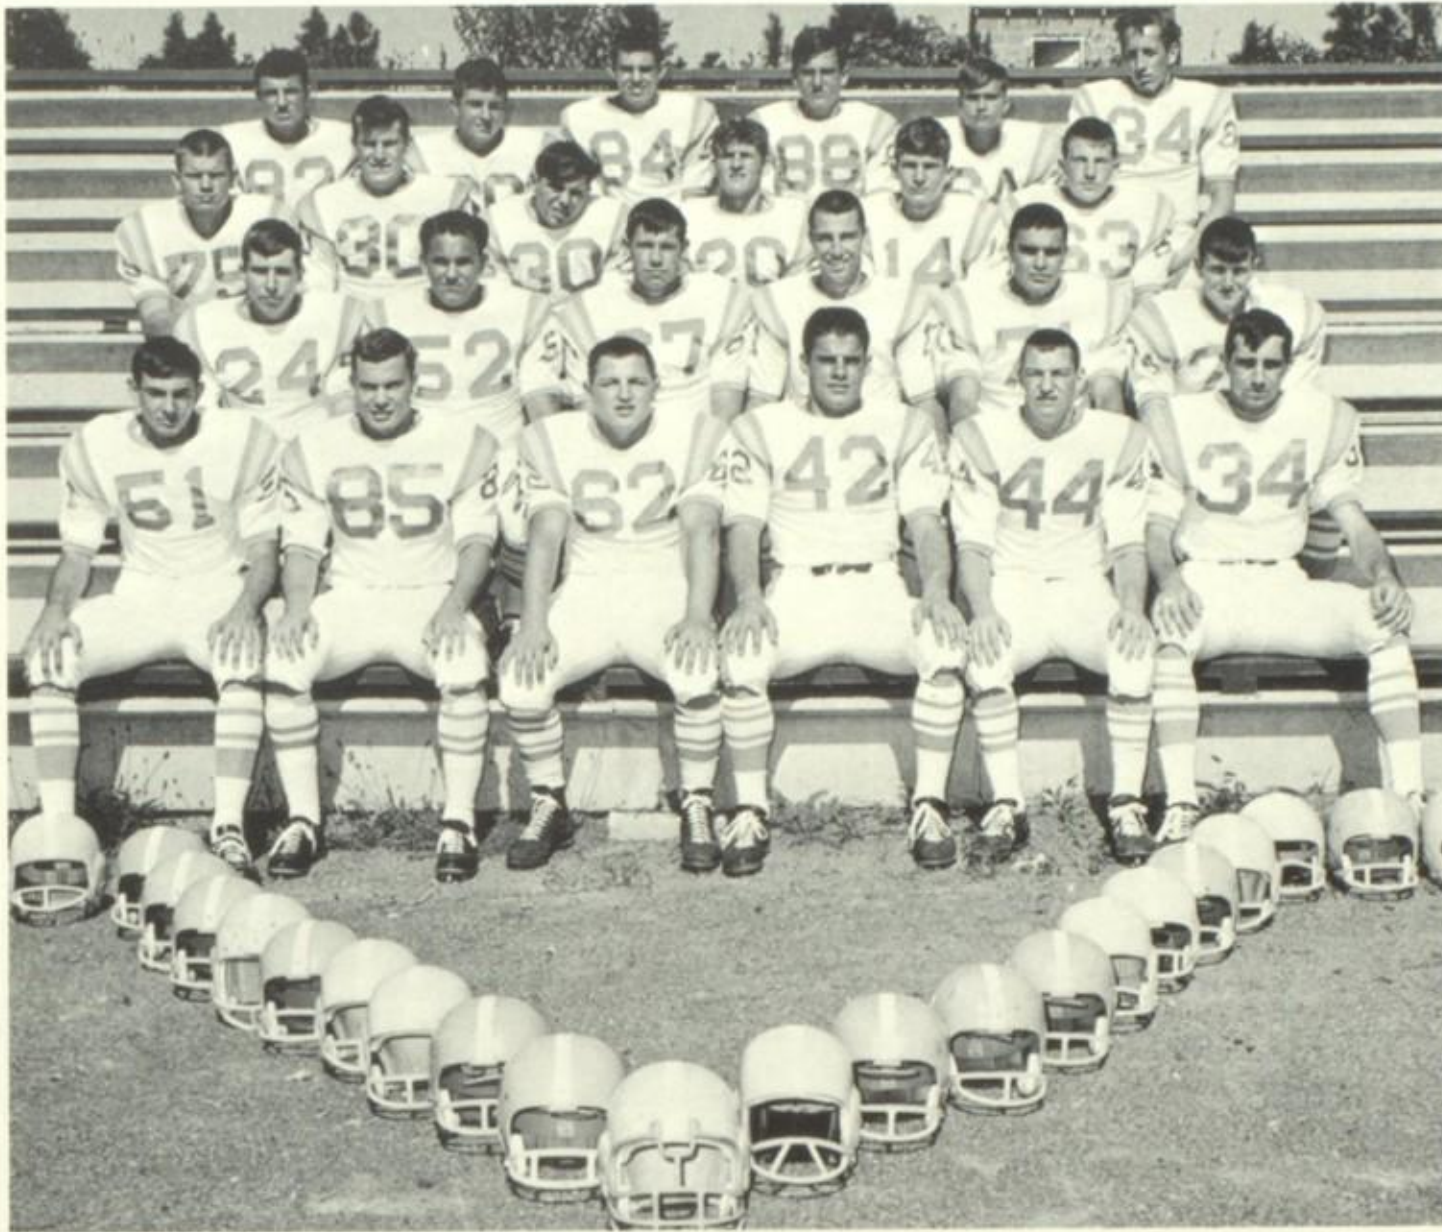

As a climax the team again defeated arch-rival Handley and retained the Kiwanis trophy for the third year in a row.

The varsity lost many talented players from this year's addition, but the future of football at our school is assured of success because of the attitude and spirit of our boys.

Much of the success the COLONELS have had in the past several years has been due to the outstanding coaching staff under the supervision of head Coach James Casey. Experienced and talented Coach Casey, along with Walter Barr and George Walters, has produced teams comparable to the best in the state of Virginia. In 1964 Coach Casey was named COACH OF THE YEAR by the Winchester Evening Star. As far as the COLONELS and the student body are concerned, he deserves this honor every year. "PRIVATES STOP ATTORNEYS COLD" read the headline in the sports section of the WINCHESTER EVENING STAR. Yes, our great jayvee football team had won over arch-rival Handley 14-0 in one of the most exciting games of the season for the junior varsity! The superior heart and desire on the part of the James Wood eleven led them on to many similar victories including another smashing win over Handley to wind up a 4-2 season.

The Wood-men, coached by Jerry Hannas, simply out-scraped their tough, talented, and often much larger opponents. Playing inspired ball, the young PRIVATES looked like professionals and fought just as hard.

Though all the boys deserve much credit and praise, there were several who were outstanding. Coach Hannas singled out halfback Mike Headley, halfback Larry Boyd, halfback Strother Adams, and fullback David Goode on offense, and linebacker Earl Foreman, tackle Dickie Shickle, back Glenn Williamson, and tackle David DuBois for the defense. Unfortunate for the PRIVATES, Ricky Catlett and Butch Campbell sustained injuries which kept them on the sidelines for most of the season. The 1965 PRIVATES will be remembered as one of the finest groups of boys ever to wear the BLUE and GOLD!

COLONEL

Excitement and tension crackled in the air in the halls of James Wood last year, and the same words were on the lips of every student, "Will our great COLONELS be state champions?" For a week before the game, the Pep Club's posters filled every available space on every available wall throughout the school, stirring up school spirit and confidence. Hearts throbbing, fans, either at the state championship game in Blackburg or glued to the radio at home, cheered, shouted, and waited for the outcome. James Wood did not win, but the Colonels gave the Blacksburg five a great game; one we are sure they will never forget. Of that famous team only one player Donnie Shifflett, remained to wear the blue and gold.

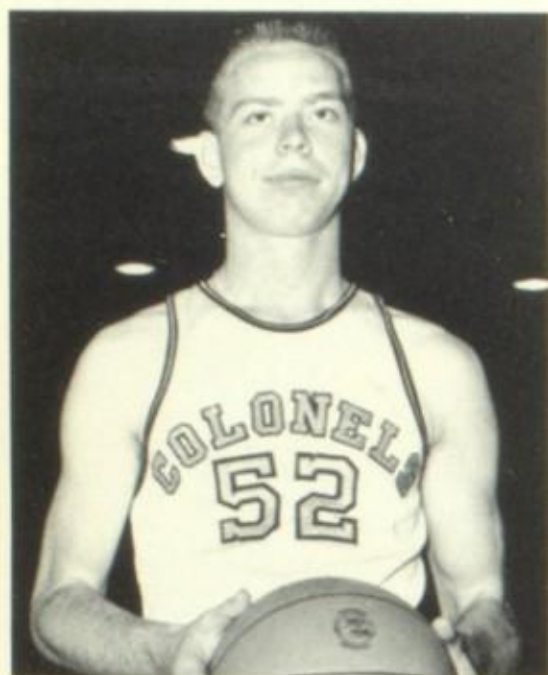

Again this year the COLONELS had a team of which to be proud. Outstanding members, besides Donnie Shifflett, who deserve to be mentioned are Billy Boyles, Ronnie Rinker, Jay Givens, Billy Fletcher, and Steve Koerner.

CAGERS

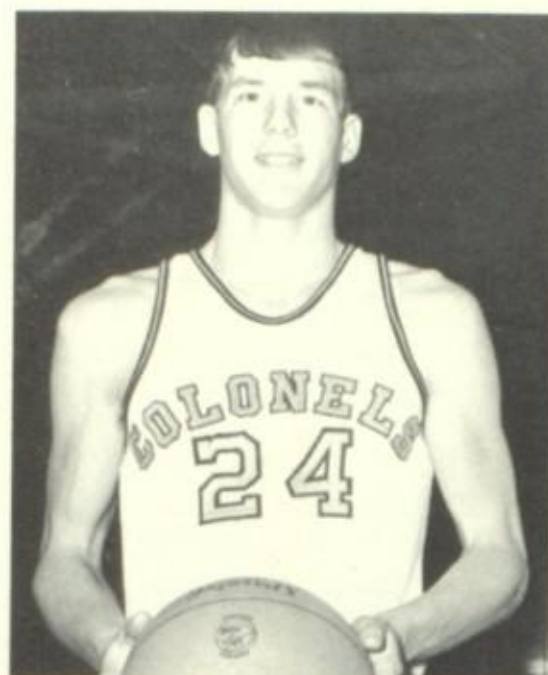

Whether the COLONELS won or lost, the games always resulted in thrills and excitement. Those games lost, like the one with the Handley Judges, were real heartbreakers, leaving many fans in tears, and those won often kept every COLONEL supporter on the edge of his seat. Such a tilt was the "dream" game with George Mason. It seemed the gym would explode with all the screaming and yelling. There were dark moments but, James Wood, using carefully planned strategy and plain skill defeated the previously UNBEATEN Mustangs; something no other team in the league had been able to accomplish, no matter how hard they had tried.

Besides being proud of a superior basketball team, James Wood is also proud of their varsity coach, Jerry Hannas. An outstanding basketball player himself, Coach Hannas has led the Wood-men on to great victories, all the while stressing hard work and good sportsmanship.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The first year is always the hardest for a new coach, and for Mr. Robert Arthur, the 1965-66 season was no exception. Though the PRIVATES were potentially a good team, Lady Luck was not with this spirited group.

The PRIVATES had their share of wins and losses, but no matter what the outcome, the boys stood out as great sportsmen. Though each boy played with all his heart and soul to win, he always remembered, "It's not whether you win or lose that counts, it's how you play the game."

Wrestling is perhaps one of the most difficult sports to excel in. Only those boys who are in perfect mental and physical condition are able to participate. The members of the 1965-66 team spent many long hours exercising to build up their muscles. They found that strength and determination were needed to win any match. For the last two years, ever since the J. W. grapplers have participated in competitive wrestling, we have come out on top as District Champions, posting an impressive unbeaten record. The school is very proud of the wrestling team; a team to brag about!

Individual wrestlers having unbeaten records were Billy Gentry, Steve Hepner, Craig Kern, Jim Harmon, and J. D. Robinson. Behind every great athlete there is a great coach; the brain behind the brawn so to speak, and our brain is Coach George "Willie" Walters. Whipping ordinary boys into Mr. Americas is a momentous job which Coach Walters always accomplishes most admirably. If such hard-working and dedicated boys continue to try out for wrestling James Wood need never worry about losing a match.

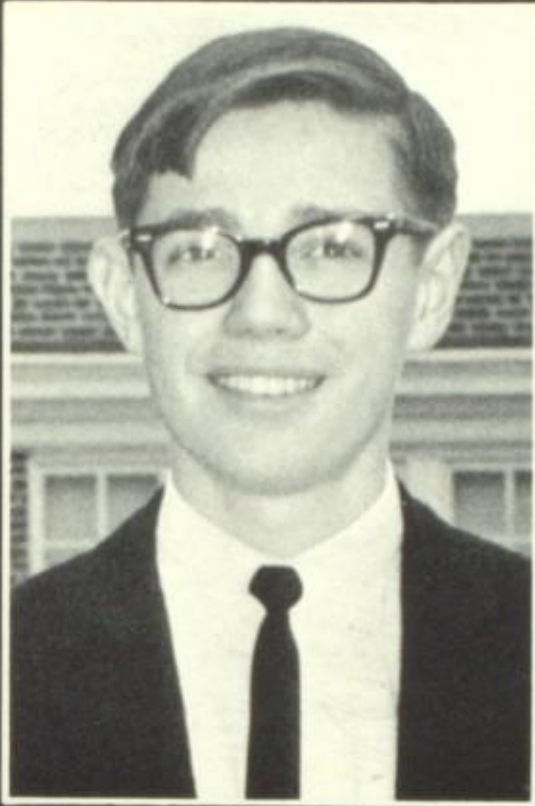

The wrestling team participated in final workouts before leaving for the Regionals in Charlottesville. The COLONELS were one of the two unbeaten teams in the tourney; Orange being the other.

HIEEE boys!

Golf, a relatively new sport introduced only last year, has earned its place in the Athletic program at James Wood. To play well one must have great skill and a steady hand obtained only through long hours of practice and more practice. As the matches are usually played during school hours there is little opportunity for the students to attend, but the eight boys who played this year knew the school was behind them. Golf is fast becoming one of America's most popular pastimes for both relaxation and profit. A former James Wood golfer, Joe Cheshire, has already shown that the gates to professional golf are open to all. Who knows, we may have another Arnold Palmer at J.W.!

Overall the 1965 track team record was 3-9, but the COLONELS met some stiff competition. But this did not stop the undaunted COLONELS from setting seven new records. Ralph Kelchner set the pace with two as he was clocked at 10.2 in the 100 yard dash and 23.2 in the 220. Dickie Allanson set a 440 yard dash record of 53.9. The shotput mark was set by Charles Goode with 48'8". Both relay teams, the 880 and the mile relays, also set standing records. The COLONELS had a very successful season, placing third to Herndon and Handley respectively last year in the Northwestern District track meet.

THE VARSITY PEP

A cheerleader is a very important person in any school. She must have an energetic, forceful personality, with the ability to charm an audience, and adapt to changing situations. She must be well coordinated and have a good sense of rhythm. She must be of high moral character and possess qualities that will make the school proud to have her wearing their colors and name. She must have a high sense of good sportsmanship and fairness.

It is necessary to be a good winner as well as a good loser. The job of cheerleading is a responsible one and the effects of a cheerleader on a student body as well as the general school is considerable. It is important therefore that a person big enough for the job be chosen. This year we have six young ladies who meet all these qualifications. We salute you for a job well done.

GIRLS INTRAMURALS KEEP

Everyone wants the ball!

Who said girls can't play basketball.

Sports in most high schools are dominated by the boys. There are no all girl golf, wrestling, track, or football teams, but the girls are not neglected. Opportunities for the athletic minded female to play on teams may be found in the Athletic Program at James Wood. Any girl interested simply signs up and stays after school. Teams are organized, practices are held, and when the instructor feels that all is ready, competition begins. Groups bearing such names as "Monkeys", "007s", and "Shindigers" battle for the title of champion. Often there is as much excitement and tension in the air as can be found at any of the COLONEL basketball or football games.

Miss Mantini gives last minute instructions.

The organization and running of such a program is difficult and time consuming. Only someone who loves athletics and enjoys working with girls could possibly make it a success. Such a person is Mrs. Margaret Payne ably assisted by Miss Maria Mantini. Members of the Girls' Monogram Club, as part of their activities, referee the various volleyball, basketball, and softball games, often participating themselves.

Girls' athletics are an integral part of the school curriculum enabling the girls to make new friends as well as play the sports they enjoy.

INTRAMURALS

season is a tournament to determine the champion. Playing for their particular club offers practice for those who already play varsity or jayvee sports and in some instances has brought future prospects to the attention of the head coaches. Games such as these provide recreation and enjoyment for the men teachers as well as for the students.

FRENCH CLUB—Jim Haines, Fred Carbaugh, David Shickle, Sam Garber, Combs, Jay Copp, Mr. White (coach).

Bobby McIntire, Allen Reid, Richard Golightly

DE CLUB—Mr. Radke (coach), Ed Miller, Lloyd Crisman, Jerry Fout, Doug Bowers, Wayne Davis.

FFA CLUB—Ronnie Manuel, Neil Fravel, Jerry Windle, David Cather, Dennis Perry, Jim Stover, Phil Bayliss, Claude Bucher, Mike Weber.

SCA CLUB—Mr. Weir (coach), Grover Orndoff, Teddy Adams, Daniel Coffmen, Bill Braithwaite, George Ritter.

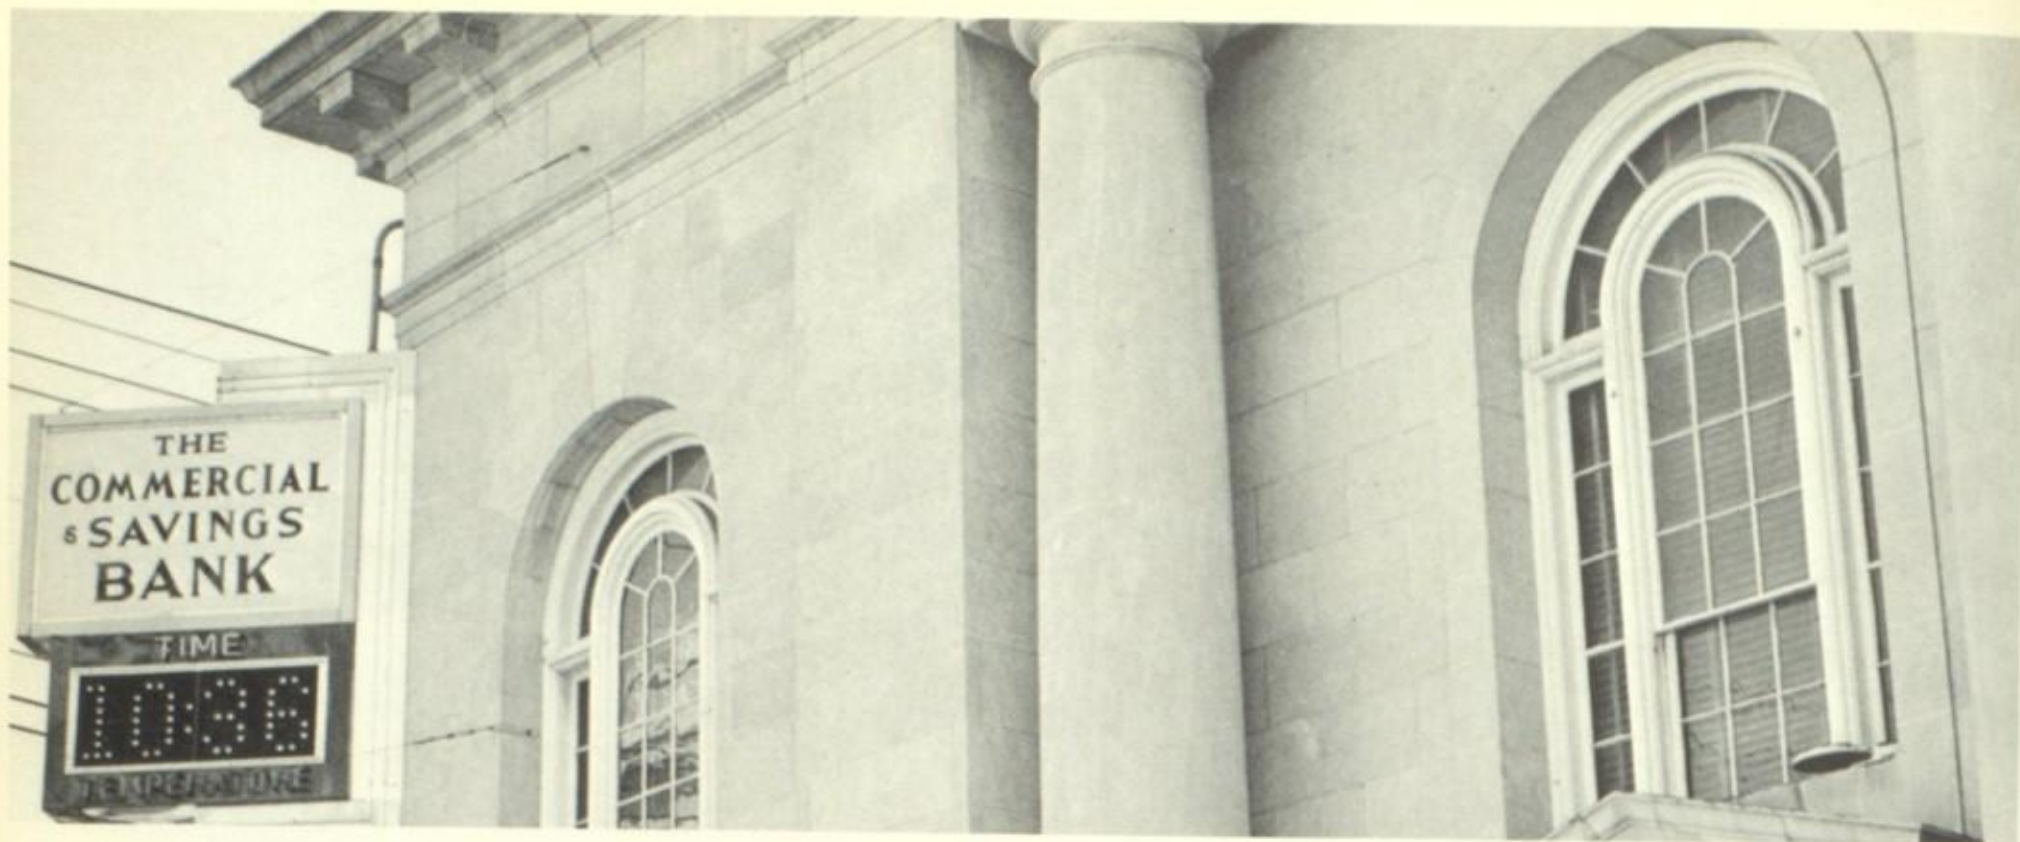

ADVERTISE

MENTS

An aerial photograph of a densely populated town, likely Winchester, showing a grid of streets and numerous buildings of varying sizes. The perspective is from a high angle, looking down on the town. The buildings are mostly multi-story structures, some with flat roofs and others with gabled roofs. There are many parking lots and streets visible, with cars parked in some of them. The overall scene depicts a bustling urban environment.

Although college, jobs, and the Armed Service will take many of us away from Winchester, those having found satisfaction in employment here will remain to work in the stores here. Whether window shopping or making a purchase or just meeting friends and talking, we will remember the friendly merchant who supported our yearbook.

OUR OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES SALUTE YOU GRADUATES AND OFFER YOU THIS BIT OF ADVICE:

“Live in the present, facing the duty at hand without regret for the past or worry for the future. Believe in yourself—do your best today and you will know satisfaction and happiness growing out of your accomplishment. It is important to remember that what we get out of life, the amount of happiness we enjoy, depends on how much we give.”
